SCHOOL DAYS

Your own little boy, as well as his bigger brother, will be STYLISHLY, SERVICEABLY and COMFORTABLY dressed in one of our WANDESS knickerbocker suits or overcoats.

Seldom has such variety of clever styles and fabrics been originated as we are showing this season.

WANDESS clothes are made in New York where the best fashions come from. They are cut full size, goods are thoroughly shrunk and tested before being made up. Every wear-exposed part and seam is taped or reinforced; THEY WILL NOT RIP.

The manufacturers, confident of the merit of their goods, authorize us to replace any garment bearing the WANDESS label and not giving reasonable satisfaction. . . .

Best of all, the difference in price between these really good clothes and ordinary garments is so trifling, that you will be delighted.

Look for the WANDESS label on the inside pocket of the coat.

WEEK-OLD WEDDING "OUT"

PERRY OLIVER, ABSTRACTOR, AND MRS. SWART MARRIED.

News Crops Out at a Dinner to Mr. and Mrs. Hibberd Last Night.

A quiet wedding solemnized nearly a week ago, came to light last evening at an elaborate dinner served to a dozen people in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hibberd, recently married at Portland. A toast disclosed the fact that Perry Oliver and Mrs. Edna Swart, well known and popular young people of this city, had been married October 20. Rev. W. S. Seen an officiating. The announcement came as a climax to the unannounced marriage of Mrs. Oliver's sister, Laura Holm to Mr. Hibberd at Portland, and while the express agent and his bride had been complimented on the keen manner in which they had stolen a march on their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver laughed last and best. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver's wedding had been held so extremely secret that even the family did not realize it until a toast from a guest who had been "on the inside" broke the news to the banqueters ostensibly doing honor to Mr. and Mrs. Hibberd.

Settlement Work.

"Came into a fortune, didn't he?"
"Yes, a big one."
"What's he doin' these days?"
"He has become interested in settlement work."
"Well, that ought to keep him occupied for awhile; he owed everybody."
—Houston Post.

His Night Work.

Cynical Friend—If the baby is the boss of the establishment and his mother is the superintendent, pray what position do you occupy? Young Father (wearily)—Oh, I'm the floor-walker.—Baltimore American.

Jewelry Galore.

Mrs. Hoyle—Covered with jewels, isn't she? Mrs. Doyle—Yes; it is hard to tell at first glance whether she belongs to the mineral or animal kingdom.—Life.

GOOD NEWS

Many La Grande Readers Have Heard it and Profited Thereby.
"Good news travels fast," and the thousands of bad luck sufferers in La Grande are glad to learn that prompt relief is within their reach. Many a lame, weak and aching back is had no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Thousands upon thousands of people are telling the good news of their experience with the Old Quaker Remedy. Here is an example worth reading:

J. A. Taylor, of Union, Ore., says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and I advise anyone afflicted with kidney trouble to try them. I was bothered a great deal by backache and when I lay down, there was much pain in my joints. The secretions from my kidneys were profuse and passed too frequently. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved these difficulties and proved of benefit in every way. I give this preparation my most hearty endorsement."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name — Doan's — and take no other.
