NEED FLAGMEN AT GAMES

NEW OFFICIALS MADE NECESSARY BY CHANGE OF RULES.

Twenty-yard Zone Is Defined by Men Holding White Flags During Game.

When Caldwell's College of Idaho team meets La Grande at the Lincoln grounds next Saturday afternoon two new officials will be seen for the first time. According to the new rules two men known as flagmen will become necessary for expeditious handling of the game. These men will hold white flags and will always be 20 yards apart. One man standing on the line of scrimmage, projected to the side lines, and the other twenty yards to the front. This is to give the field officials undisputed motions of the twenty-yard zone. In this zone a player is allowed uninterfered rights to catch a forward pass, and onside kicks become onside only after they have gone twenty yards. Hence the necessity of the flagmen.

As the day for the game approaches interest increases and the fact that this is going to be the biggest game of the season is becoming more generally known. The college of Idaho has been the champion high and prep school team of Idaho for years and suffered defeat last year at the hands of the La Grande team only.

CONTRACTOR IS JUBILANT

ENTHUSIASTIC OVER IMPROVEMENTS IN LA GRANDE.

Harry A. Young Has Good Word for This City After Seeing Others.

Within the short space of a few weeks La Grande has changed its general appearance a thousand fold according to Harry A. Young the Portland contractor who laid the Second street water main last summer and who left here about the time paving was commenced. The large district now included in the paving zone has worked wonders with the city according to his notion. Mr. Young is well acquainted with every town and city in the northwest and while here became convinced that La Grande is the "hummer" town of them all.

Mr. Young has a contract for laying a sewer in the sand dunes of Pasco but was called to Baker City on business and decided to stop off in La Grande to renew his many acquaintances. Mr. Young is one of those genial fellows who make friends wherever they go.

Laying Theatre Floor.

Contractors Hiner & Robinson are today laying the floor joists in the Gardiner theatre building. The stage structure is completed and by the end of the week interior finishing will be commenced.

Chalmers MOTOR CARS

Not How Many, but How Good

The makers of Chalmers Cars don't try to turn out the greatest number of cars, but they bend every effort toward making the very best car in quality, workmanship, style and finish that can be produced for the money.

You don't buy a car simply because of price. A car that is thrown together hurriedly from ordinary materials is dear at any price.

You want quality first of all. You want service. There are many quality cars, but most of them have luxury prices.

In a Chalmers you have the combination of quality with right prices. That's why they are so popular.

New Models will be on exhibition at an early date.

We only ask that you see these cars for yourself and compare them critically with others.
