Doan's Kidney Pills relieved these difficulties and proved of benefit in every way. I give this preparation my most hearty endorsement."

THE WESTWARD.

All England Talking of Yacht Built by an American.

Once more an American and his work are much in the public eye in England. This time it is the famous yacht builder, Nat Herreshoff, who is in the limelight abroad, owing to the beauty of his schooner, the Westward, which was entered in the recent Cowes regatta. There is no doubt that she was the belle of the meet. A writer has called her the American dream ship and has written of her:

"When her canvas was spread to the wind she was acknowledged to be a thing of melody and poetry—a dream ship as perfect in the beauty of line and form as in another way, the Venetian gondola. I think the Westward should have been called the White Knight, for she comes to us like a knight errant. Across the Atlantic she came, not in fair weather, but with an angry sea running and half a gale blowing. Herreshoff was inspired with a masterpiece. Every line of her was a stroke of genius."

It is no surprise that a Herreshoff has built such a vessel as the Westward. Nat and his blind brother, John D., are known the world over as the greatest yacht designers and builders of our time. The Columbia, Constitution and other famous cup defenders were their creations.

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

ADVERSITY may be a good thing, but when misfortune comes to us in the guise of prosperity you can hear us rejoice a mile away.

If you aren't in the procession you are either above or below the average.

The man who doesn't know is most assiduous about distributing the knowledge that he hasn't got.

The kind of hat a man wears isn't always indicative of his brain power.

He laughs best who laughs when he feels like it.

There is often a perceptible connection between hot air and cold feet.

Trying to make connections with a belated train of thought is as exasperating as having Christmas weather in June.

As long as they say nothing about it it doesn't make any difference whatever to us how much other people want to have their own way.

It is better to have an excuse without any use for it than to have a use without any excuse for it.

There may be some people who are fond of a dogmatic man, but up to date nobody has ever met them.

There are people who are too good natured to be really busy.

"Yes; he has cut out the flowing bowl."
"Think he is in earnest?"
"Indeed he is. He only paints in water colors now."
