LAURA WINSTON NEXT WEEK

Week Stand Opens at Steward With Popular Players in Title Roles.

The coming of Miss Laura Winston on next Monday is a welcome announcement for this is one repertoire company Mr. John Cort has chosen to play his chain of theatres this year. The opening play will be a comedy called the Grey Dove and is said to be one good laugh after another from the rise to the fall of the curtain, even afterwards when at home a point here and there will cause a smile.
It is this sort of combination, good acting and a good play, which has made the Winston company the great favorites they have proved themselves where ever it has been the good fortune of the theatre goer to receive a visit from them.

This is the same company which played the entire summer at the Keylor-Grand theatre in Walla Walla and their record here is one to be envied. As we know, only a meritorious organization could and would be permitted to play in that theatre especially for so long a period therefore it is to be expected none but excellent performances will be seen at the Steward during this engagement. A new play will be given each night, the selections being mostly on the comedy line but with sufficient good drama interwoven to suit the fancy of all.

Seats will be on sale at the usual place and popular prices of 25, 35 and 50 cents prevail during the week.
