LAUNDRY WORK

If you are not a customer of Cherry's New Laundry we urge you to give us a trial. We guarantee all work to be satisfactory and will re-laundry any article not so found or cheerfully refund your money.

We want to build up a home laundry employing American labor, which will be a credit to the town. We merely ask a chance to prove that we can satisfy you. Can't you grant that much?

All work called for and promptly delivered.

There is enough laundry work in La Grande to keep a good sized force busy and keep the money at home. Are you a booster for home industry?

We are now comfortably housed in our new building, just a few steps from Fir st. We are safe from dust and dirt and are easily found if you want to carry a bundle down town. But we'll gladly call in our wagon.

SPORTING COMMENT.

broke the deadlock last Saturday by defeating Elgin ten to 0 at Cove.

Elgin is playing Island City at Elgin this afternoon. The Island City team was defeated by La Grande's second team a few weeks ago.

Harry Walters was held out of the big game at Portland last Saturday, presumably, so that he could play with the O. A. C. freshmen against Oregon's freshmen today.

Reynolds engineered the O. A. C. team when they overcame W. S. C. last Saturday at Portland and the task is no small one to do right, for Osthoff's men are noted for their intrigue and generalship.

Will Rush, the coming half back for the La Grande team, was not a substitute with the La Grande team yesterday as announced in the Observer.
His presence was eliminated by the fact that Principal Mansager joined the delegation and consequently Rush was crowded out at the last minute.

La Grande football followers will be interested to read the success of Ben Grout at the university of Oregon where he is one of the Yost-like scoring machine. Grout is a brother of the young man of the same name who is with La Grande at Spokane today. Ben was out of the university for a year but entered on the senior work this fall.

The alumni-high school game on Thanksgiving day should be a hum-mer drawing card if it actually takes place. The funds thus accumulating of course, are not to be redistribut-ed as is often the case, to bring an outside team here at great expense.
The teams would be a real live wire drawing card.

During the coming basketball season the M. I. A. team will be taken on a tour by Manager Geddes, and it is likely that such teams as Pendleton, Weston, Milton College, Walla Walla and Hermiston will be encountered during the junket. Before this tour, however, it is probable that a game here and a game at Imbler with the Imbler club will be played off.

Yale Fears Defeat.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 5—Sons of Old Eli are oppressed with the fear that the blue banner will be trilled in the dust today by the football squad from Brown university. The game with Brown is looked upon as a test of the relative strength of the Yale and Harvard elevens, but this year such a test is hardly needed. Harvard defeated the Providence aggregation by the score of 12 to 0, but unless the Blues show a remarkable improvement in form, it will be surprising if the invaders do not take them into camp, or at least hold the Yales even. In such event, Yale men admit, the football season for the Elfs will be all over but the weeping.

Harvard vs. Cornell.

Boston, Nov. 5—Harvard vs. Cornell is an attraction which has caused the football fans of Boston to set out this morning for Boston to set out this morning for Cambridge in the hope of seeing one of the snappiest games of the present season. The betting favors Harvard, as the Ithaca eleven has made none too good a showing against the minor teams it has played.

Football in West.

Chicago, Nov. 5—Purdue will be the attraction on the University of Chicago gridiron this afternoon, and will probably prove easy victims to the prowess of the Windy City boys.
Next Saturday Chicago will meet Cornell at Ithaca in the first big intergan and Notre Dame play today at sectional contest of the season. Mich-Ann Arbor, and the Michigan eleven will have to fight hard to prevent defeat.
