FINAL HOUR HAS COME

New Haven and Middlesex counties, is the scene of a pitched battle, with the odds only slightly favoring the Republican nominee, Col. Andrew Shepard who is opposed by Mayor Thomas L. Riley, of Moriden.

Delaware.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 8.—As in the past, Delaware is a hard fought political field today. Congressman William H. Heald, Republican, is a candidate for re-election, and is a slight favorite in the betting over former Attorney General Robert C. White. A state treasurer and auditor of accounts are the only state officials to be chosen today.

Florida.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 8.—Florida will, as usual, return three Democrats to Congress today. The battle between "wets" and "drys," which has agitated the state for years, has occupied the attention of the voters of the state to the exclusion of nearly all other issues.

Georgia.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 8.—Georgia has already elected her governor this year and this has detracted from the interest in today's congressional fight. Ten of the eleven districts are assuredly Democratic. A factional split has caused trouble in the Eighth district, but the selection of a Democrat is reasonably certain.

Idaho.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 8.—Indications point to Republican success in today's election, both for governor and representative. The liquor question has been one of the principal issues of the campaign, both parties being divided between adherents of local option and statewide prohibition.

Illinois.

Chicago, Nov. 8.—Indications are that the Chicago vote today will be the largest ever cast in an off year, although falling below the total of two years ago. Managers of the state congressional campaign naturally make varying claims today, the Democrats asserting that their representation will be increased from six to at least eight, while the Republicans allege that all the present Republican districts are safe and that the Fourth, Fifth and Twenty-third districts, now Democratic, may be captured by the G. O. P. Reports from Speaker Cannon's district, the Eighteenth, say that a heavy vote is being cast and that "Uncle Joe" will have a larger plurality than two years ago, when he carried the Danville district by over 7,000.

Indiana.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 8.—Hoosier voters got into the game with a vim this morning and the prospects are that a big vote will be rolled up. The legislature is the bone of the contention, since it will decide whether Senator Beveridge will continue to wear a toga or be succeeded by John W. Kern, the Democratic aspirant for a seat in the United States Senate. Indiana now has eleven Democrats and two Republicans in the lower house of Congress. The personal popularity of Beveridge may not only carry the legislature, but swing two or three of the Democratic districts into the Republican column. Both Democratic and Republican leaders declare today that victory is certain.

Rhode Island.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 8.—Gov. Aram J. Pothier, Republican, will be re-elected by a reduced majority over Lewis A. Waterman, Republican, according to early indications. Republican candidates in both Republican districts are considered safe, although it is admitted that the unexpected may happen.

South Carolina.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 8.—Coleman L. Blease, Democrat, will be chosen governor of South Carolina today without opposition. All seven congressional districts will remain Democratic.

Tennessee.

Nashville, Tenn., Nov. 8.—United States Senator Robert L. Taylor will probably be the next governor of Tennessee, succeeding Gov. Malcolm R. Patterson, who was forced to retire from the contest for re-election by opposition in the Democratic ranks. Capt. B. W. Hooper, the Republican gubernatorial candidate, received the endorsement of the anti-Patterson Democrats and at one time appeared to be almost certain of victory, but the personal popularity of Senator Taylor has greatly reduced Hooper's chances of election. The congressional representation of the state will likely remain as at present, with two Republicans and eight Democrats in the lower house at Washington.

Texas.

Houston, Tex., Nov. 8.—Efforts of the Republicans to put Texas in the G. O. P. column have again been futile, according to reports from today's election received this afternoon.

There is nothing to indicate that the Lone Star state has changed its political opinions, and the entire Democratic state ticket and sixteen representatives to Congress are certainly elected.

Utah.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Nov. 8.—Mormonism vs. "Americanism" is again the issue in Utah today. A legislature will be elected that will choose a successor to United States Senator Geo. Sutherland, who is a candidate for re-election. The American or anti-Mormon party, which is in political control of this city, is opposed to the Republican nominee and will throw its strength on the Democratic side in the senatorial fight. Representative Joseph Howell is standing for re-election, and the Republicans claim for him a majority of at least 10,000 over Ferdinand Erickson. A large number of women are voting today and their ballots and influence will count largely in the result.

Virginia.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 8.—Virginia

DANGER IN DELAY.

Kidney Diseases are Too Dangerous for La Grande People to Neglect.

The great danger of kidney troubles is that they get a firm hold before the sufferer recognizes them. Health is gradually undermined. Backache, headache, nervousness, lameness, soreness, lumbago, urinary trouble, dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease follow in merciless succession. Don't neglect your kidneys. Cure the kidneys with the certain safe remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, which has cured people right here in this locality.

G. W. Knight, 513 Franklin St., Pendleton, Ore., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills benefitted me so greatly that I do not hesitate to recommend them. For eight or ten years I was troubled by pains across my back and kidneys and at times my loins and sides were affected. I had to get up several times at night to pass the kidney secretions and often noticed sediment in them. Doan's Kidney Pills relieved my aches and pains in a short time and corrected the trouble with the kidney secretions."
