FINAL HOUR HAS COME.

now has nine Democrats and one Republican in the House of Representatives, and today's election will probably retain this partisan proportion. The Ninth district is certain to remain Republican, and leaders of the party have hopes of carrying the Fifth district.

Washington.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 8.—With the certainty of the election of all three Republican candidates for Congress, the great battle in Washington today rages over a constitutional amendment granting to women the right to vote. For months the suffragists of the nation have been centering their attention on this state, and they are jubilant today at what they assert to be the certain victory for the cause. Representative Miles Polindexter, Republican insurgent, will be chosen for the United States Senator by the next state legislature. Secretary Ballinger, aided by President Taft, fought bitterly to defeat Polindexter, but in the recent primary he won an easy victory, thus repudiating Ballinger in his own state.

West Virginia.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 8.—Of the five Congressional districts of this state, now all Republican, four are placed in the doubtful list by political wiseacres, and this opinion seems to be confirmed by the reports that are coming in from over the state. The Republicans claim all five districts, but admit that the majority of two years ago will be reduced in at least two of them.

Wisconsin.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 8.—A state ticket, eleven congressmen and a complete legislature, except for sixteen hold-over senators, are being voted on in Wisconsin today. The Republican state ticket is headed by Francis E. McGovern for governor, with a platform perhaps the most radical that has been formulated by a Republican convention in a score of years. Through the influence of Senator La Follette the convention condemned the tariff bill, and went on record as favoring the initiative, referendum and recall, physical valuation and stringent regulation of railroads, employers' liability laws and other radical measures. The Democrats nominated Adolph J. Schmitz for governor, and he has received the support of many Republicans. The Socialists are polling a big vote, especially in this city, and the election of Victor L. Berger, a national leader among the Socialists, as the representative of the Fifth district in Congress, seems very likely. If successful, Berger will be the first Socialist to be sent to the United States Congress. With the exception of Berger and possibly one Democratic candidate, the state's Republican representation in the House will continue unbroken.

Wyoming.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 8.—W. C. Mullen, Republican candidate for governor, will probably be victorious in today's election in Wyoming over John M. Carey, the Democratic nominee. The state's one representative in the lower House of Congress will probably continue to count on the Republican side.

Iowa.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 8.—The election of Gov. B. F. Carroll for another term and of certainly nine and probably all eleven congressmen is claimed by the Republican campaign managers this afternoon. Little interest has been manifested in the campaign and the total vote is likely to be comparatively light. The Democrats are claiming the election of Claude R. Porter, gubernatorial nominee, by from 20,000 to 30,000 majority, and the success of Democratic candidates in at least three congressional districts.

Kansas.

Topeka, Kan., Nov. 8.—Democrats this afternoon claim the election of F. C. Rockefeller, a cousin of John D. Rockefeller, who is running for Congress in the Sixth district against I. D. Young, progressive. The remaining five districts are almost certainly Republican. D. R. Anthony, of Leavenworth, and P. P. Campbell, of Pittsburg, both representing industrial and mining districts, are the only Republican "standpatters" running for re-election, all of the agricultural districts having chosen progressive Republican candidates. Gov. Walter R. Stubbs, a leading insurgent, is certain of re-election.

Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 8.—Kentucky's present representation in the House is composed of eight Democrats and three Republicans, and it is likely that this will be maintained by today's election. The Republicans are claiming two additional districts, while the Democratic leaders assert that they will gain one. Caleb Powers, who was tried three times for the murder of Gov. Goebel, is the Republican nominee for Congress in the Eleventh district, and is practically certain of going to Washington.

Louisiana.

New Orleans, Nov. 8.—Election day in Louisiana is passing quietly. The Democratic candidates in all seven districts will be elected without important opposition. The voters will today pass on a bond measure providing for an issue of $5,500,000 for the proposed Panama Exposition.

Maryland.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 8.—Early returns indicate a very close contest in the Fifth and Sixth districts, now held by the Republicans. The First, Second and Fourth districts appear to be safely Democratic. The Third district in the city of Baltimore, carried two years ago by John Kronmiller, Republican, by a plurality of 242, is in doubt.

Massachusetts.

Boston, Nov. 8.—Eben L. Draper, Republican, is certainly re-elected governor today over Congressman Eugene N. Foss, the Democratic nominee. The present representation in the House, ten Republicans and four Democrats, is likely to remain unchanged. Although the Democrats entered the election with party-harmony restored, the recent fight over candidates has had the effect of reducing the party's

Both Speedy and Effective.

This indicates the action of Foley Kidney Pills as S. Parsons, Battle Creek, Mich., illustrates: "I have been afflicted with a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble for which I found no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. I was troubled with backaches and severe shooting pains in the sides with annoying urinary irregularities and a sense of incompleteness in the act. The steady use of Foley Kidney Pills rid me entirely of all my troubles. They have my highest recommendation." Hill's Drug Store.
