A Cold Settled in His Kidneys.

This was the experience of Mr. J. T. Pendleton, Effingham, Ill. "My kidneys and bladder bothered me for some time. Had severe backache, felt all tired out, saw specks floating before my eyes, and my bladder caused me much misery. Finally I caught cold, that settled in my kidneys and I was pretty sick. At that time Foley Kidney Pills were suggested, and I commenced taking them. A few weeks treatment put me back on my feet, stopped the backache and dispelled the bladder misery. The tired feeling left me and my vision cleared. Since then I have recommended Foley Kidney Pills to many of my friends."—Hill's Drug Store.

Notice to Contractors.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids will be received at the office of the City Recorder for the construction of 5350 square feet of cement side walk to be constructed on Adams avenue between First street and Fourth street on both sides, the said walk to be constructed according to the specifications on file in this office. All bids must be in by 8 o'clock p. m. November 16th, 1910 and must be accompanied by a check of five per cent of the amount of the bid. The Council reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

AMUSEMENTS.

The principal musical event of the year here will take place at Stevard's Opera House, November 17 when Miss Ellen Beach Yaw, the distinguished Soprano, will be heard with her associate artists in a program replete with interesting and well arranged selections.

The catholy of Miss Yaw's program is what makes it remarkable. One of the greatest classical interpreters now living, she is at the same time equally at home in the field of music-drama—whose various diversions are collectively grouped under the one head—opera.

Her lists of numbers therefore include the master-classes, operatic gems, and the old songs dear to the hearts of every man and woman, whether they know or do not know if Wagner or Verdi wrote "Il Trovatore." More than usual interest attaches to this program, since Miss Yaw will present two exquisite new compositions of her own—"Cradle Song,"—"Rose Child,"—and, "Love's Lament,"—pronounced by competent judges perfect bits of song composition. Miss Yaw is responsible for both verse and melody.

Miss Yaw may not properly be called an American prima-donna any longer. She is a world prima-donna, and has made sensational triumphs in opera in Italy, France and Germany and has as well enthralled concert audiences in Spain and England, besides enrapturing the coldly critical folks who filled the boxes of New York's Metropolitan Opera House with a blaze of diamonds and glowing shoulders.

"My first duty," says Miss Yaw, "is to my own country and my own people." Hence she has turned down fabulous offers of European engagements to make the "grand tour" of North America upon which she is just embarking. This is to be followed, as all readers of the daily papers know, by a tour of the world, which has excited wide anticipatory comment in every quarter.

"CAMILLE" APPRECIATED.

Large Audience Pleased—"Green Eyed Monster" Last Attraction.

A crowded house witnessed the performance of Camille by the Winston players last night and were more than repaid. There were many who were sceptical as to the status of Miss Winston as an exponent of the role but at the end of the performance they were obliged to admit that she was all that could be desired. Her rendition of the consumptive fighting off the dread monster and at the same time appearing to the world as one of its most ardent devotees of gaiety was artistic to a degree and her death scene was a piece of acting that will live in the memory of the theatre goers of La Grande for many a day. The supporters cast all did no good work but W. S. Van Dyke and Erba Roberson are worthy of special mention, their work standing out above all others. Tonight the laughable comedy from the pen of William Gillette the man who wrote "Held by the Enemy," "Secret Service," and many others entitled "The Green Eyed Monster" will be the offering and those who have witnessed the performances of this clever company are anxiously awaiting its production and everything indicates the banner house of the engagement.
