Who is Next Judge?

Who is to be the next circuit judge of the sixth judicial district and who is to be the next prosecuting attorney, asks the Pendleton E. O.?

These are two questions which are now foremost in the minds of local political leaders as a result of the election of Circuit Judge H. J. Bean to the supreme bench.

According to street rumor the law firm of Phelps & Stelwer seems to be in line to land both positions if it so desires. It is generally understood that Judge Bean will resign his present office just before January first in which day he will take the oath as a member of the state supreme court. It will then devolve upon Governor Benson, or his substitute, Acting Governor Jay Bowerman to name a successor.

That the naming of this successor will not be left to West, the incoming democrat is a foregone conclusion.

It is also understood that District Attorney Phelps can have the circuit judgeship for the asking. This is by reason of the fact that Phelps was an active supporter of the candidacy of Bowerman in the primary as well as the general campaign, whereas Winter, the other local republican candidate was not an active supporter of Bowerman during the primary struggle.

Whether or not Phelps will ask for the plum himself or for his friend, Congressman W. R. Ellis, is a question as yet unanswered to the satisfaction of the public. The impression prevails, however, that Phelps will take the position himself.

If Phelps is made judge a vacancy will be left in the district attorneyship and as Deputy Prosecutor Attorney Frederick Stelwer is a candidate for the position and as he stumped a part of the state in behalf of Bowerman during the campaign just closed, the general consensus of opinion seems to be that he is in line for the promotion. There will be other candidates, however and some of these may arise to side-track the aspirations of the present deputy.

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

Miss Natalie White has secured a license to drive an automobile in New York.

Miss Della Chapin Torrey of Millbury, well known as President Taff's Aunt Della, is now eighty-five years old. She is in excellent health.

Mrs. Eva E. Bean of Saco has been admitted to practice in the United States circuit court of Portland. Mrs. Bean is the first woman in Maine to receive the honor. She has been a practicing attorney at Saco for a number of years.

Miss Ethel Smythe, the composer, is now entitled to write "Mus. Doc." after her name. This much coveted degree of musical doctor was recently conferred upon her by Durham university, and Miss Smythe is the first English woman to be so honored.

Maud Morgan is one of the few American women who have seriously devoted themselves to the harp. She studied with her father when a girl and afterward with Chevalier Charles Oberthur, harpist to the queen of the Belgians. Her debut in concert work was made in New York in 1875 with Ole Bull. Miss Morgan has been harpist in Grace church, New York, since 1893.

He Wasn't It.

"My dear Miss Billmore," sadly wrote young Hankinson, "I return herewith your kind note in which you accept my offer of marriage. You will observe that it begins 'Dear George.' I do not know who George is, but my name, as you know, is William."—Chicago Tribune.

The following epigram was written on Dr. Isaac Letson, a once well known English physician:

When folks are sick and send for me I purges, bleeds and sweats 'em. If after that they choose to die What's that to me? I Letson.

A Come-back.

"Honesty, my son," said the millionaire, "is the best policy."

"Well, perhaps it is," rejoined the youthful philosopher, "but it strikes me you have done pretty well, nevertheless."—London Tit-Bits.
