AMMISSION 10c

DR. M. P. MENDELSON

DOCTOR OF OPTICS.
AT 1105 ADAMS AVE.
FOLEY HOTEL BUILDING.

You take great risk when you trust your eye-sight to those without experience, without proper equipment, and of whose competence you have no guarantee.

HONEST WORK calls for experience, skill, knowledge of the power of light, knowledge of the anatomy of the eye, knowledge of the diseases of the eye, knowledge of every muscle connected with the sight, knowledge of the physique of persons whose eyes are examined. This knowledge cannot be acquired in a few months but by hard study and years and years of practical experience.

Over 29 years of practical experience in FITTING GLASSES, the completeness of our equipment, the immense stock we carry, the satisfaction we have given others and the high moral and professional purpose of our business is our guarantee to you that we have ALL these qualifications.

Dr. Mendelson is endorsed by all the leading oculists of the Pacific coast and by all the physicians of La Grande.

All broken glasses replaced while you wait.

Their Nesting Place.
"I have just got hold of a rare old book."
"What is it?"
"The story of the crusades."
"That and microbes."

In Prospect.
We're all growing crazy, the doctors declare.
And won't it be fine as a fiddle?
No person will have either trouble or care,
And life will no more be a riddle.
To sit in the sunshine and say foolish things
Will just be our sole occupation,
And life will glide on like a racer on wings,
One long and untroubled vacation.

We'll think we are Louis the First, or perhaps
Napoleon in all of his glory,
Or one of those booted and blustering chaps
You find in some wild western story,
Or maybe the man who invented green cheese,
Or one who was born in a castle
And has to do nothing but sit at his ease,
With every one else as a vassal.
We'll think we own railroads and telegraph lines
And ships that can cross the equator
And come home with cargoes of olives
And salmon and live alligator.
We'll fancy our lands an extensive and wide
Dominion, well paying and ample;
That we for a day could their boundaries ride,
And that would be only a sample.

That we are the ones who are running the state
Will never be called into question;
That we can make congress or presidents wait
Until we can drop a suggestion.
It is not as easy as that when we're sane.
The outlook looks doubtful and hazy.
By the change that is coming just see what we'll gain!
Oh, won't it be great to be crazy?

A Scattered Family.
I met a little orphan.
Who, sad, began to cry:
"I'm left without relations
In little old N. Y."
"Ma moved to Nevada.
It was the place, said she,
Where twin ice in Reno
Would make a person free."
"My brother to Ohio
Picked up his heels and went.
He thinks it is the method
To be a president."
"In haste to reach the border
My pa is making tracks,
He goes to Minnesota,
The state without a tax."
—Judge.

An Unpleasant Suspicion.
"Robert, I must remind you not to linger in the hall when I have a few business associates to dinner."
"I was only keeping an eye on the hats and coats, sir."
"Eh! Why, you didn't do that at your former place, did you?"
"No, sir. My former master's guests were quite a different sort, sir."
—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Difference.
I know a human dynamo
Who does some careful dressing.
At ten he'll be to his office go
When golfing isn't pressing.
He sits up in his office neat
While other folks are broiling
And there emits a constant blast
About the joy of toiling.

I know a lot of smaller fry,
A lot of lesser fellows.
Some make the dirt in ditches fly,
Some run a forge or bellows,
Some drive a wagon or a dray,
Some earn their bread by clerking.
But none of these has much to say
About the joy of working.
—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Notable Cure.

Justis Warner, LaFayette, Ind., was completely cured after two years of suffering. "My kidneys and bladder bothered me severely for two years making me suffer intensely. My kidneys were weak and sluggish while in my bladder there was constant misery. I was run down, tired very easily and appetite poor. Four bottles of Foley Kidney Pills cured me completely. My appetite is restored, I sleep restfully and feel stronger and healthier than ever before. I gladly recommend Foley Kidney Pills."—Foley's Drug store.
