Everybody knows the kind of goods we carry, but nobody has known such prices on them as we are giving in this sale.

Moderate prices being the keynote of our policy, we would not promise you so much unless these bargains were extraordinary. THEY ARE. We have tried to prove this in type, but that is a difficult matter. The goods themselves will prove it conclusively and more easily than anything we might say.

We hope for the attendance of all our regular patrons. We invite also those who have not made our acquaintance to come and see for what little prices really good goods can be sold.

Remember that the quantities in most instances are small, but the prices are smaller still. So don't be late, come early.

thing except rubbers and overalls

Selne Rising Fast.

Paris, Nov. 15—The Selne today reached the fifteen-foot stage. Reports up stream say a big volume of water is coming down. This increases the fears of another flood as the hydrometric office this afternoon predicted a raise of at least four feet.

WHAT OREGONIAN SAYS.

Ellen Beach Yaw Given Praise by Portland Critic.

In the Sunday Oregonian of Portland, Oregon, in the issue of November 6, 1910, Mr. J. M. Quentin, the well-known critic and editor of the music page of that paper says:

"One of the greatest musical treats I ever heard in all my life was the concert given at the Teilig last Friday night, by Ellen Beach Yaw, the coloratura soprano. It wasn't a mere exhibit of musical fireworks, a pure exhibit of high notes, but a glorious song recital of songs, in which the one shining star was tone, and then more tone—especially in her middle register. Let us now be honest to Miss Yaw and forget the blight of her bad advertising in her earlier days. She is in 1910 the great American singer and in the purity of her notes in her middle and high registers up to C in art, is as much of a concert artist as Melba or Eames. Be fair, people."

"Still More than the Best."

M. Otto Paul, Milwaukee, Wis., says Foley's Honey and Tar is still more than the best. He writes us: "I have so many calls for Foley's Honey and Tar that I will have to write you for some more. All those that bought it think it is the best for coughs and colds they ever had and I think it is still more than the best. Our baby had a bad cold and it cured him in one day. Please accept thanks. 'Hill's Drug store."
