NEED ROOMS FOR GUESTS

BUSINESS MEN AS A UNIT WORKING ON ENTERTAINMENT.

Informal Reception Monday to Usher in Three Day Session Here.

In order to have adequate entertainment facilities when the 500 Eastern Oregon teachers come here next Monday to attend a three-day session of the Eastern Oregon Teachers' Association, it will be necessary for the people of La Grande to throw open their doors to the guests. Anyone having rooms that are available for three days, should notify the secretary of the Merchants Protective Association at the office of District Attorney Ivanhoe, for the business men have left the clerical work of compiling the room list to the clerk, C. A. Small. All the business men in the city are behind the movement to give the teachers a royal entertainment when they arrive here and things will be started off with a reception Monday evening. Further details of this reception will be announced later.

The most important feature at this time is the securing of sufficient rooms to house the delegates. They come expecting to pay for their entertainment, and the hosts and hostesses of the teachers will not be unpaid for their troubles.
