North Powder News Items.

North Powder, Nov. 15 (Special).—The Grant Dalton residence is nearing completion and it will be a modern building throughout. North Powder is proud of this structure, and it indicates that Mr. Dalton believes North Powder is alright.

Ernest Forstrom, junior member of the firm of Forstrom & Johnson Co. who recently closed out their mercantile business, will leave in about two weeks for Portland, where Mr. Forstrom is going into the mercantile brokerage business.

The North Powder band is making preparations for a grand ball Thanksgiving day. The band is now one of the best musical aggregations in the state and is surely a credit to North Powder.

If his vision could have extended far enough into the haze of evolution to foresee the ultimate triumph of incandescent electric lighting—the GENERAL ELECTRIC MADZA LAMP.

The sage old philosopher flew his kite during a thunder storm, and by means of a key attracted and discovered electricity, but evolution decreed that modern inventive genius should discover an incandescent lamp that is revolutionizing artificial light.

THE GENERAL ELECTRIC MADZA LAMP gives nearly three times the light of the ordinary carbon incandescent—and costs no more to operate. In addition to this it gives light of a vastly superior quality—a clear white light like the sun's rays.

Everywhere people are having their houses wired for electric light, since the invention of the GENERAL ELECTRIC MADZA LAMP. It has made electricity as cheap as it is convenient.

Come in for a moment today and let us prove to your entire satisfaction that there is no longer a possible excuse for you to be without the greatest of all household conveniences—electric light.

scene of Lucia di Lammermoor and in Caro Nome (Rigoletto) and Le Rossignol were marvels in technique and beauty.

Miss Yaw's training abroad under the best master's has developed her voice into one of satisfying loveliness and she has eclipsed her early reputation, which depends too largely upon the spectacular rendition of her high notes, as to be no longer in the same class. She now ranks as one of the bright and shining stars in the operatic firmament, where, at the Metropolitan in New York she has won original success winning the highest praise from the foremost musical critics.

The songs which Miss Yaw sang last night with effect were, Hayden's 'My Mother Bid Me Bind My Hair,' Schubert's 'Where is Sylvia,' and the Veribliches Standschem, of Brahms.

"Jay Flowe, the solo flutist, lent excellent variety to the program with several difficult selections, which demonstrated his technical skill and capacity for producing rarely fine tender tones from his instrument.

"Mrs. Mary Newman was an able accompanist."
