MRS. LYLE REMEMBERS LOCAL CLUB ON BIRTHDAY.

November Will Close With Interesting Meeting in Honor Anniversary.

(By Mrs. E. C. Moore.)

Fifteen years ago the Lyle Tuesday Musicales was organized under the direction of Clara T. Lyle. At first the organization was known as the Ladies Tuesday Musicales. After the death of Mr. Lyle, Mrs. Lyle was called away from La Grande. Her presence and influence was so missed by the musicale that for a time the Musicales did not flourish as was its former wont. Then the ladies met and decided to honor the "little" lady, and also honor themselves, by naming the club the Lyle Tuesday Musicales. And, indeed, any town should be proud of a musicale society such as is the Lyle Tuesday Musicales. And its influence no doubt is far reaching in our diligent study of the old Masters and the rendering of their compositions. This winter Mrs. Lyle is touring Europe and has been very thoughtful of her name-sake for we have received many tokens of her telling of pleasure and sight-seeing, recently the Musicales received a beautiful statuette of Beethoven sent from Munich, from Mrs. Lyle to commemorate our fifteenth anniversary, which by the way, is on Beethoven's birth anniversary. Mrs. Lyle is a direct descendant of these noble Scotch who have made "Old Scotia revered abroad and loved at home." The ladies of the Musicales join in wishing Mrs. Lyle continued pleasures and a safe return to the arms of her own, where her friends await to welcome her to this, her former home, La Grande. This winter the ladies are studying American music and from the enthusiasm displayed at our last meeting we look forward to a prosperous year of study. Tomorrow's programme is under the direction of Mrs. Birnie, and the composer, MacDowell, sincerely hopes the members will attend and take advantage of the privilege allowed to each member, to invite a guest.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank the many friends including the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen for their sympathy in our time of deep bereavement caused by the death of our son and brother.
