After District Attorneyship.
Taking it for granted that District Attorney Phelps is to be named as circuit judge, Homer I. Watts and S. F. Wilson journeyed to Portland this afternoon to interview Governor Benson. Each would like to succeed Attorney Phelps, Attorney C. S. Notson, mayor of Heppner, is also a candidate.—Pendleton, East Oregonian.

FIRST NIGHT'S CROWD BIG

GULLIVERS ARE STAR ATTRACTION AT NEW THEATRE.

Many People Turned Away From New Show House Last Evening.

With the Gullivers, midgets, as the feature act of a long program, the Orpheum theatre opened its doors and sent its initial program on the stage last evening before 700 people, a number greater than the seating capacity and still they were turned away at the door. It was a signal opening run and the program is worth the price of admission. Expressions of delight at the newness and up-to-dateness of the building were heard on every hand.

The Gullivers stay two nights more and then take their departure. These midgets are not the only ones on the boards however, for all the acts are good and Manager Cassimer wears the smile that wont come off today because of his good program, a good, new and modern house, and a fine opening run crowd.

House for Switchmen.
The O. R. & N. company, after many years is fitting up a house in the local yards for the use of the yard switchmen. Heretofore the switchmen have had no place to go to change their clothing, and no place to go in out of the wet when it rains. The new house is equipped with a stove and with lockers.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Humor and Philosophy
By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

WHEN the weather man hands us out some shop worn weather left over from last season we wish we had not been so charitable as to give away all our last season's clothing.

If there were no fools in the world what would the superior rest of us do for amusement?

Some men are good because the devil has found no use for them.

Let not the sun go down on your wrath. Take it out of the other fellow while you are in the mood.

Don't get a new suit that closely resembles your old one, for obvious reasons.

We think we know our affairs best, but it is hard to bring our friends to agree with us.

Many a good thing has been boosted too high.

Mother splits the kindling now because football practice makes Johnnie so tired.

Needed Protection.

"That pretty stenographer winked at me."
"What are you going to do about it?"
"What would you do?"
"Call the police."

Inherited Talent.
"Your son has made a great record in college."
"Yes; he gets past a Greek verb occasionally and can call the baggage smashers names in Latin."
"But he is the best pitcher on the college team."
"Some pitcher, eh?"
"He is all of that."
"Well, he comes by it honestly. His dad before him could pitch more hay than any two men in these parts."

Commercialized.
The muse was very kind to him. He was an advertising bard. His flights he never had to trim. But recited old poems by the yard. With publishers he took no chance; His terms were always in advance.
