ADMISSION 10c

LOCALS

Cold weather's coming. Want an accurate thermometer so you can watch the mercury drop? We've a big stock of the accurate kind. You can quote their figures and know you're right. 25c to $2.50.—Newlin Drug Co.

If a prescription is correctly written we can fill it, no matter what drug-gists name is on the blank. It will be compounded correctly, too and our prices will be right. Wright Drug Co., Prescription Pharmacists.

Vacuum carpet cleaning, taking up, sewing and laying. L. F. Billinger, phones Red 565 and Red 141.

A feature of the Christmas Scribner will be the reproduction in colors of four drawings by Jessie Wilcox Smith representing favorite children in Dickens's novels, such as Tiny Tim, David Copperfield, Paul Dombey and Little Nell.

WANTED—Man that can furnish horse and wagon to contract. Good pay. Call on E. C. Henneger, Hotel Savoy.

A special soap sale is now on at the Wright Drug store.

The ladies of St. Peter's Guild will hold a sale of fancy articles and cooked food Saturday, December 10. Full particulars will be announced later.

If your doctor does not recom-

ment your bringing his prescription to us it's because he doesn't want to appear partial. He knows, however, that better prescription service than ours is unobtainable. He will be glad if you do come here.—Newlin Drug Co.

Through a probable error last evening at the teacher's reception in the Elks hall some one took an overcoat belonging to R. E. Chloupek. Whoever has that coat please leave it at the Observer office at once.

PERSONALS.

Walter M. Pierce returned today from a business visit in Portland.

Miss Edna Ellison left this morning for Boise where she will be the guest of friends during Thanksgiving.

Attorney J. D. Slater is transacting business in Enterprise today, and intends to return tomorrow.

A. L. Mitchell, publicity manager for the Wright-Dickinson Hotel Co., is here attending to business matters today.

George Herr, a popular member of the high school is in Walla Walla, spending Thanksgiving week. He left this morning.

Rob Stanfield, the founder of the new town by that name in Umatilla county passed through the city this morning on his way to Huntington and Weiser.

"Bill" Parker the U. M. C. and Remington agent, Jim Spence, S. N. Bolton, Bert Hughes and Mr. Winder are among those attending the Tuttle shoot at Imbler today, from this place.

A. C. Huntington, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. George H. Curry and Albert Curry, returned this morning from Hot Lake, where he has been taking treatment for some time. He is somewhat improved.

C. G. Osbourne, the Pacific States company auditor who has been spending several days in the city, leaves this evening for his home in Portland, where he will eat turkey with his family.

Valuable Necklaces Lost.

A valuable gold bead necklace, the property of Mrs. J. T. Richardson, was lost last evening either at the Elks hall or between that building and the Richardson home on Sixth street. The finder will kindly leave it at the home.

WANTED—Woman or girl to do general housework. Phone Black-481.

Superior Judgment.

"He is always boasting about his superior judgment."
"Brown?"
"Yes."
"Superior judgment, nothing! Why, his wife makes every decision in that family!"
"Well, Brown selected her, didn't he?"

Strong Desires.

"There is only one person who desires a thing more strongly than a fat woman desires to be thin."
"Is that so?"
"It is."
"And who is that?"
"The thin woman who desires to be fat."

Not Desirable.

"There is lots of human nature in all of us."
"What a brilliant remark! Here is one equally brilliant."
"What is it?"
"Some of it seems so unnatural."

Explained.

"What is an emergency?"
"An emergency?"
"Yes."
"It is coming to a place where you either put up or shut up."

Still Better.

Mrs. Blase—Have you begun your suit for divorce?
Mrs. Highup—No, but I've begun the suit I'm going to wear when I get my divorce.—Puck.

Angelina Scores.

When Edwin reached home the other evening he was pained to find Angelina with tears streaming down her face. In his mental vision he pictured some great catastrophe. Had the cook given notice? Or had the baby cut the wrong tooth? Or—whatever could it be?
"My love," he cried, "why are you weeping?"
"I am not weeping," she replied cheerily; "these tears are stimulated."
"Ha, ha!" he laughed in a superior manner. "You mean stimulated, my dear—stimulated."
"No, I don't," she returned. "I mean stimulated. I've been peeling onions."
—Ideas.

When your feet are wet and cold, and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by...

Overcoat Talk...

MEN speak of our Overcoats in the highest terms, and they merit the comment.

They are beautifully designed and elegantly tailored.

Every man can find here an Overcoat that will seem to have been made especially for him.

Overcoats in all the season's correct Models in Kerseys, Ox-fords and Grays. Mixtures in all the weaves that look well and wear well and that impart a pleasing personality. Silk or Serge lined, as you prefer.

Overcoat making has reached a Tailoring art—and there's hardly a Man that goes to the exclusive Tailor for his Overcoat. Always pleased to show!
