

30 Days Trial in your own Home

$1 A Week Payments

These are the remarkably liberal terms upon which we sell that new and improved sewing machine which was recently invented by Wm. C. Free, which has been so widely advertised in Women's Magazines, and which is revolutionizing the sewing machine business,

The FREE Sewing Machine

Because of the fact that The FREE is sold so much lower than the best known sewing machines, we have agreed never to publish the price broadcast. You would judge its quality by its cost. You would not believe that absolutely the best sewing machine in the world could be obtained at such a bargain.

So instead of talking price, we have decided to make it easy for you to own The FREE and find out its quality yourself. We will sell it to you at your own terms, as low as $1.00 a week, and to show you how we place our whole establishment back of this wonderfully perfect machine without the least qualification, we offer it to you on 30 days Trial in your own home. Sew on it for 30 days. Give it any hard test you can think of for 30 days. Compare it point by point with any other machine you have not been convinced that it is the best machine you ever heard of, the most convenient, the most improved, and if the low price does not delight you—return the machine to us. We will refund your deposit so that the trial will not cost you one cent.

Our reason for making you this offer is to have you notice how much lighter its sets of ball bearings make it run.

- how much faster its Rotoclose Movement makes it run
- how much easier it is to use its Shuttle Ejector than your finger nails or screw driver
- how much better it is to have a Rotary Spool Pin that keeps thread from breaking or tightening

- how much more ornamental its Finishing design and durable ironing aw
- how much more convenient it is to have an Automatic Tension Release, Automatic Locking Drawers, an Improved Head Latch, a Belt that covers comes off, and a 5 year Insurance Policy against every kind of accident.

So Come and See The FREE tomorrow and take it home with you.

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

Miss Bell Honan, one of Ireland's wealthy women, has given $50,000 to Cork university to establish free scholarships.

Miss Fola La Follette possesses much of the personal magnetism of her father, United States senator from Wisconsin, and is an ardent suffragist.

Mrs. Arthur Hamilton, wife of Major Arthur Hamilton, has created a record for swimming in being the first woman to swim the Solent from Stokes bay to Ryde.

Fannie Bloomfield Zeisler, the pianist, who has played in recitals throughout America and Europe since 1883, was born in Silesia, but was brought to this country by her parents while a child.

Miss Ina Shepherd is said to be the only woman who holds the place of secretary in a clearing house association in this country. She has held that post in Birmingham, Ala., for more than five years.

Belle Greens, who has charge of J. P. Morgan's library in his sumptuous art gallery and library in New York, has supervision of the most valuable private collection of art objects and rare books in the world.

"That's what?"
"I heard the boys yell at her, 'Hobbie, ahoy!'"

The Undressed Philosopher.
More whippers than a girl would need
A pillowslip to stuff,
A crop of lilacs run to seed,
A shield from weather rough,
Some straggling hairs upon his head
That vainly try to meet,
In color just a faded red,
And that's old Uncle Pete

A coat that maybe was a fad
When Noah sailed his ark—
You'd hardly speak of it as "stad"
And fitting for a lark;
Pants that are baggy, old and frayed—
Description falls my pen;
A vest that figures once displayed—
There's Uncle Pete again.

But do not judge him by the mop
Free from restraint and comb,
Or by the faded halter on top
That traces his shining dome,
Or by the garments out of date
That he has worn so long,
For which the rag man lies in wait
To purchase for a song.

No; judge him by his genial smile
And by his sage remarks
And listen to his wisdom while
It flies from him in sparks.
Advice you get hot from the bat
By sitting at his feet,
Experience boiled down and pat
From wise old Unc. Pete.

UNION PLAYS BAKER TO A TIE.

Second Team of Baker High Played in Hard Luck.

In a very close contest Saturday afternoon Union high and Baker high's second team played in hard luck, for more than once they practically had a touchdown but lost it, says the Baker City Herald. One Baker man caught the ball within a yard of Union's goal on a forward pass and then dropped it, a Union man getting the pigskin. Again a Baker man was downed within 15 yards of Union's goal and through an unfortunate accident the ball slipped from his arms.

The teams were well matched as to weight, but the locals played the new style of ball better than their opponents. Union stuck to the old style of line smashing and close formations and Baker played more of an open game. The locals worked four forward passes out of seven attempts, but the visitors did not try this style of play at all. Some of the local players were nervous and a couple of times bad plays were made through the failure of the locals to understand the signals. There was a good deal of punting on both sides, with honors about even. It was a good game enjoyed by a fair crowd.

BIG PROFIT-IN-MINE DEAL.

Enormous Profits on Comparatively Small Investment in Baker Co.

Portland and Eastern Oregon capitalists, owners of the Gold Coin mine adjoining the Mormon Basin in the southeastern corner of Baker county, have just disposed of their holdings to a New York concern headed by Thomas Nevius & Sons, 37 Wall street for $750,000, says the Telegram. This is a profit of $450,000 on an investment of $300,000 in the past two years. The owners of the mine which was capitalized at $3,000,000, bought their stock at 10 cents a share in 1908 and the sale to the New Yorkers was on a basis of 25 cents a share. It is stated further that the purchasers have within the last week practically concluded negotiations with an English syndicate to take over the property for $1,500,000. If this is done it will net the Nevius syndicate a clean $750,000 or 100 per cent profit in less than 30 days. The former owners of the mine were the Matlock family of Pendleton; T. W. Ayers of Baker City; F. Fred Rothchild and L. Y. Keady of this city, the latter being the president and organizer of the company which just sold out.

Grande Ronde's Welcome.

(By R. and L. Hansen.)
Mingled together like gems unset,
All the colors of Nature's palette,
Covered above with turquoise blue,
Smiling and waiting and welcoming you.

In a stronghold of mountains covered with wealth,
Oh, glorious Grande Ronde, the valley of health;
A rival of Eden, we laud thy praise,
Unbounded resources at your behest,
Oh, beautiful valley of heaven blest,
We welcome you traveler; no need to roam,
In search of a better Home Sweet Home.

Evening in Indian Summer.
Full of music sweet and low,
Soft and warm as a child's caress,
Mountain zephers come and go.

With lovely, lazy languidness,
Shadows violet and shadows gold,
Haunt the dells when the sun is old,
Painting the ways where hide the Echo eyes,
Soothingly chanting; come rest yourselves.

We gaze enchanted on this sight,
Of flame clad heralds of the night;
As she her shadow robes unlease,
In Indian Summer, the days of Peace

A Hard Lesson to Learn.
"It was Marcus Aurelius, I believe, who said, 'Live as if you expected every day to be your last day.'"
"Yes; I think he said something of the kind. I've often quoted it to my son, but I can't get him to take the lesson to heart. He seems to prefer to live as if every day were going to be pay day." —Chicago Record-Herald.

The Blind Man.
He put her on a pedestal
And worshiped from afar,
Called her his blessed damozel,
His saint and guiding star.

Soon came a cave man on the scene
With "Hello, Kid! My name is Greenel.
Behold my roll, my limousine!
Jump in! I know a preacher guy
Who is a wizard at the tie!"

And he who worshiped from afar
Now seeketh solace at the bar.

Farmer's Wife—Where did he learn singing?

Byes—Oh, he don't sing, mum. He calls the carriages!—New Haven Register.

One Girl's Bitter Experience.
I had a little hobbie skirt.
It filled me with delight,
For it was saucy, yes, and pert,
And just a trifle tight.

I wore it out one sunny hour—
A cynosure I seemed—
When swiftly came a summer shower
And shrank it till I screamed!
—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
