FULL TOLL AT MRS. BRAMWELL 24 FOR THE SEASON

LAST FATALITY OCCURS IN PREP-SCHOOL GAME.

Fractured Skull Leads to Death of Twenty-Four Victims of the Year.

Winsted, Conn., Nov. 25—A fractured skull, sustained during a Thanksgiving football game between the Tierney Cadets and Gilbert Preparatory school, resulted today in the death of Harry Lee, aged seventeen. This makes the twenty-fourth death this season.

MRS. BRAMWELL SUCCOMBS

DEATH COMES AT 2.30 O'CLOCK THIS MORNING.

Funeral Services Will be Held Sunday Afternoon at 1 O'clock.

Following many weeks of critical illness and suffering and several days of struggling with death, Mrs. F. C. Bramwell succumbed at 2:30 o'clock this morning at the family home 1304 M. avenue. Heart troubles are responsible for her death.

The remains of Mrs. Bramwell will be interred Sunday afternoon. The funeral services will be held from the L. D. S. tabernacle at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and interment will follow immediately afterwards. She is survived by her husband, Receiver F. C. Bramwell of the local land office and a son and daughter, both of tender years.

For Cora's sake.
"You know why Robinson Crusoe lived so long on his?"
"Because they were easiest for him to eat?"
"No; he had Friday every day in the week."

No Hope For Her.
"Is she a prophet?"
"Well, her friends always talk of her sweetness and her good heart when they speak of her."

No Question About It.
"Never ask a woman how old she is."
"No?"
"No; just assert how young she is."

Bringing It Home.
To listen to the mocking bird
You need not seek the sylvan wood;
His plaintive pleadings may be heard
Upon the photograph quite good.

LADY BOUND OVER TO GRAND JURY

CLAIMS IGNORANCE OF HAVING COMMITTED ANY CRIME.

Bound Over to Grand Jury Under Bond of One Thousand Dollars.

Thomas Cady, the man arrested two days ago on a charge of sodomy, was arraigned in Justice of the Peace William's court this morning and waived examination. He was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $1,000 which he has not paid and is consequently still in jail.

Cady pleads ignorance of having committed or attempted to commit any crime. He remembers nothing of it, he said today, and can remember only taking a drink in a near-beer saloon just before being arrested.

Good Advice.
A GREAT RISK!
100%
"I am about to embark on the sea of matrimony."
"You rash fellow!"
"Ain't I?"
"Tell you what to do."
"Out with it."
"So many divorce widps are blowing that you would better get Lloyds to underwrite your cargo."
Inconsiderate.
"Fire when you are ready," said the great commander."
"I am ready now," replied the raw recruit, "but the blamed enemy won't stand still long enough to allow me to take good aim."

Crinolines.
In the World of Fashion of 1837 a reference to "the new stuff of crinoline." Crinoline was partly the partly horsehair, its name being compounded of the French "crin," hair, and "line," flax. Hats, skirts all sorts of things that were wanted to possess a certain stiffness were made of this material.

Electrotyping.
Electrotyping was first successfully practiced in 1837 and was considered a triumph of chemical and mechanical skill, requiring the utmost care for its execution.

Worthy of the Gift.
An old European custom was to take oath that he had strictly minded his own business and not meddled in his neighbors' affairs for a year a day.

An Indian Almanac.
The Indians in Canada when go to hunt for the long winter the flat wooden almanac, with a hole each day. Sundays are marked holidays so as to be distinguished, fast days have a rude fish owner, moving his peg each day, up with the times.
