FREIGHT WRECK ON SHANKO

Passenger Train Delayed While Line is Cleared of Dead Stock.

Wasco, Ore., Nov. 28—A wreck on the Shanko branch, north of De Moss, several miles south of here, delayed traffic on the road last night, and the south-bound passenger train was held here until the road could be cleared. Three cars of freight were derailed at the DeMoss wreck, a number of cattle killed and several cars badly shattered, but no member of the crew was hurt. The wreck was cleared away and traffic resumed Saturday morning. Saturday night the south-bound passenger train was again delayed five hours at this place when the fuel oil on the regular engine failed. The train was compelled until another engine could be run to Biggs, secure a supply of fuel oil and come to Wasco to take the regular train to its destination at Shanko.

Humor and Philosophy

By DUNCAN M. SMITH

PERT PARAGRAPHS.

THERE is more difference than appears at first glance between being good for nothing and being good for what there is in it.

You may or may not be lenient toward the small boy across the street, all depending upon whether you have a boy of your own and whether or not interests clash.

The world doesn't worry much over a man that whines. It is the man with a long sharp stick who causes it to sit up and take notice.

A man has charity for his own misdeeds, but he wants justice for his neighbors.

Any man may get there except the man who will not try.

No vice seems quite so heinous after we ourselves have been guilty of it.

That Old Account.
"Do you know Wilkins?"
"Wilkins?"
"Yes."
"No, I don't know him."
"Why, I thought he said you used to trade at his grocery store."
"That's the reason I don't know him now."

Taught Him the Tricks.
"So Billy and you have broken away."
"Yes; he has learned to love another."
"You ought to send him a bill."

Overcoat Talk...

MEN speak of our Overcoats in the highest terms, and they merit the comment.

They are beautifully designed and elegantly tailored.

Every man can find here an Overcoat that will seem to have been made especially for him.

Overcoats in all the season's correct Models in Kerseys, Ox-fords and Grays. Mixtures in all the weaves that look well and wear well and that impart a pleasing personality. Silk or Serge lined, as you prefer.

Overcoat making has reached a Tailoring art—and there's hardly a Man that goes to the exclusive Tailor for his Overcoat. Always pleased to show!

Our Holiday Goods Are Now Ready

If you know what stocks we have had in previous years and then know that this one is larger than ever, you will realize that there is pleasure in store for you when you come to inspect it.

PLEASE DO THIS

Come in as soon as you can and look carefully through the entire line of goods. You will see scores of articles that will suggest gifts for those you have to choose for. These suggestions will prove a vast help to you by making final choice easy.

There is no other stock like ours in this part of the state and it is worth while to see it as soon as you can.

Holiday buying begins a little earlier each season and before the buying you should scan the goods so as to have the best possible choice. Come in this week by all means and take time to see all the goods.

A Few Suggestions

We can only give general details of the stock here and will provide further information later. What we wish to do now is to awaken enough interest to induce you to make an early start on the inspection of holiday gifts. It always pays. You will get ideas, you will have widest choice, you will have a chance to secure novelties that may not be here later.
