LOCAL THEATRES

MANY CATCHY SONGS.

Plot of "The Time, the Place and the Girl" is Also Attractive.

The scene of "The Time, the Place and the Girl" which comes to the Steward theatre Wednesday, Nov. 30, is laid in the mountains of Virginia at a "rest cure" whither Happy Johnny Hicks, and his pal, Tom Cunningham, have fled from the result of an escapade of Cunningham's in a gambling house in Boston. The complexities of the plot occur while the "rest cure" is in a state of quarantine with all the servants absent. The guests are forced to do the work themselves—a condition that inspires mutiny among some of them. Of course there is a pretty love story. The production is unusually artistic and the chorus is the liveliest and prettiest crowd of girls that ever were gathered in one company. Messrs. Adams and Hough are the authors of the play, and the music is by Joseph E. Howard. Ned Weyburn produced the twelve musical numbers. With the prestige of having created the longest run ever made by any show in Chicago, in addition to ten weeks in Boston and sixty times in New York to crowded houses, and three highly prosperous road seasons, "The Time, the Place and the Girl" carries at least one other distinction; it is that this is a comedy with music and a plot. The combining of a story that can be understood, with music of the whistly sort and wonderful dances by pretty girls have been the pivotal features of its enormous success.

The most sensational of the dances is the "Dixie" number, which in combination with the "Uncle Sam's Best Girl" is the finale of the second act. It was staged like the other dances by New Weyburn and is undoubtedly the acme of his work as a producer.

George Abner heads the cast again. He appears as a happy-go-lucky gambler with a typical and prolific vocabulary, who corners all situations when he finds himself caught at a quarantined sanitarium. Among those in the cast are Amanda Hendrick, Jeanette Patterson, Gertrude Snythe and many others, while the chorus of forty is considered the most beautiful in town this season.

Both Speedy and Effective.
This indicates the action of Foley Kidney Pills as S. Parsons, Battle Creek, Mich., illustrates: "I have been afflicted with a severe case of kidney and bladder trouble for which I found no relief until I used Foley Kidney Pills. I was troubled with backaches and severe shooting pains in the sides with annoying urinary irregularities and a sense of incompleteness in the act. The steady use of Foley Kidney Pills rid me entirely of all my troubles. They have my highest recommendation." Hill's Drug Store.

The Squirrel.
A squirrel's natural term of life is from fifteen to twenty years, and in localities where squirrels are little disturbed they multiply with extreme rapidity.

Most people can run into debt, but they get out at a snail's pace.

Would you be always young? Then get a hobby and ride it in season and out of season. It may be hard on your friends, but don't mind a little thing like that.

If it be true that a man is old as he feels, then what Methuselahs stag diners must be responsible for!

Progress.
They're building bigger vessels, Bill,
To put the Dreadnoughts on the blink
And the contractors' pockets fill
With bales and bucket loads of chink
And when this bigger one is done
And many others in its class
They'll turn out a still bigger one
As these on to the scrap pile pass.

At that the builders will not stop.
Each biggest one will have its day.
Then something from the clouds will drop.

And it will hear, "Be on your way."
No odds how bulky it may be,
How many tons it may displace,
It in a little while will see
A bigger vessel in its place.

That is the law. We must progress.
There isn't any place to stop.
The war lords will have nothing less.
The very largest in the shop,
Until the clumsy iron hulk,
All conquering and unafraid,
Just by its awe inspiring bulk
Throws little islands in the shade.

And is there any aid in sight
To all this frenzied, frantic waste
For death in iron monsters cased?
There is—a very little thing,
But very saucy, trim and fit—
The steamship now has taken wing,
And they may read their doom in it.

Instruments of Torture.
"He is absolutely without human sympathy!"
"But he seems pleasant and always tries to please."
"That is all put on."
"But wherein does he offend?"
"Doesn't he sell alarm clocks?"

Might Alter It.
"Is your wife a suffragette?"
"She was yesterday."
"Isn't she today?"
"I don't know. She has just had the most expensive hat in town sent home, and I haven't talked to her since."

Beats Dishwashing.
"Your daughter has such an angelic disposition!"
"It is all management on my part."
"How do you do it?"
"Threaten to discharge the hired girl whenever she gets on her high horse."

Not Advertising It.
"They say that every man has his price."
"Yes."
"I think that some of them are so cheap that they hate to let theirs be known."

Something Heroic.
"What is the matter with you?"
"I have a raging fever."
"What are you taking for it?"
"Medicine."
"Why not boiled lobster?"
