"I suppose you talk dialect to amuse the summer boarders?"

"I used to," answered the man, "but not now. I call the farmhouse a bungalow in this year's prospectus, and everything will be on a high brow plane."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

"'Twas ever thus since childhood's hour,
The poet sang so sweet,
Whenever I plant a garden flower
It proves to be a pest.
Tomato plants with care brought out
Far from the climate rude
When in the sunshine set about
Are only cutworm food.

The sweet corn and the cabbage sprout,
Now cherished with such glee,
Will furnish dainty food no doubt,
But not for you and me.
That market basket, once despoiled
We'll carry as of yore.
The place where hopes are realized
Is in the grocery store.
—Washington Star.

"Your father despises that young man you are engaged to."
"I know it, and so do I."
"Then why in the world are you going to marry him?"

"I wouldn't marry him if he was the last man on earth."
"Then why?"
"Dad will buy me off with an electric runabout in a few days."—Houston Post

UPRIVER MINE ASSAY HIGH

SEVEN NATIONS MINE ORE SHOWS BIG PROFIT.

Julius Fisher, one of the directors of the Seven Nations mine has just received an assay of the ore from the Idaho state assayer which shows $25 in free milling gold per ton. The Seven Nations mine are located in the Carson mining district and development work shows that the ledge is 23 feet thick. Mr. Fisher will leave for the mines after the first of the month to personally inspect it and to arrange for operation. Lost Opportunity.
"Too bad you don't smoke, John."
"Why, my dear?"
"Think how much money you could make by quitting."

A Change of Tune.
Oh, doctor, when we do not have
A single pain or ache
We scoff at you and all the things
You mix for us to take,
But let us get the slightest touch
Of something like disease—
We fly to you at once and cry,
"Oh, doctor, help us, please!"

We contemplate complacently
These things when far away
And feel that always we will romp
Well as we are today.
A little pinching underneath
Our belt or plasters
Is all we need to make us come
A-knocking at your door.

That's where you get your mighty drag
You sit around and wait
And know that we will have to hike
To see you soon or late,
And then you rubber at our tongue,
Ask where we feel so sore
And mutter as you shake your head
We should have come before.

'Tis not the whiskers on your face,
'Tis not the things you know,
That makes us when we need a friend
To you for comfort go,
That makes us trail you down the street
And stick to you like glue,
It's just because we do not know
Another thing to do.
