

MAY PROVE FATAL

When Will La Grande People Learn the Importance of It!

Backache is only a simple thing at first; but when you know 'tis from the kidneys;

That serious kidney troubles follow;

That diabetes, Bright's disease may be the fatal end,

You will gladly profit by the following experience.

'Tis the honest statement of a sufferer who was cured.

Mrs. L. D. Edwards, 2045 Virginia St., Baker City, Ore., says: "My back ached for over a year, but I did not pay much attention to the trouble until a short time ago, when it became almost unbearable.

After getting up in the morning, I was so lame and sore that I could hardly do my work. The kidney secretions were badly disordered and I was very nervous. When a neighbor advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I did so and the contents of a few boxes removed my pains and aches and strengthened my kidneys."

LOCAL THEATRES

Big Houses at Orpheum.

Manager Gardiner had two good houses Monday and Tuesday evenings for his new bill. Herman and James, the violin and Singer put on a fair act, the violin playing being above the ordinary. Noel and McPhail, the male sister team of singers and dancers, put on a very pleasing act in regard to costumes and impersonating. The gowns were costly and the impersonation was fine but the singing and dancing was just fair. The Electrical Musical Novelty by Kellum and Wilson Trio, is the act of the evening and is well worth seeing. They handle a number of various musical instruments with skill and ease and they were called back for several encores.

Good Program at the Isis.

The change at the Isis last night shows three very good pictures, and each one teaches a valuable lesson. "Settled Out of Court," is especially good, showing a modern society home and the demon jealousy at work and the quick divorce as the means of righting an imaginary wrong. The picture ends in a happy reconciliation by their plucky little boy. It is worth seeing. "The Path of Duty" by Lubin is also worthy of notice. It shows a seacoast town and settings with a love story intertwined with a smuggling plot. The scenery is good and the plot above the ordinary. "Max in a Dislema", by Pathe is a laughable comedy.

SHOW TROUPE ARRIVES.

Pretty Girls, Big Chorus and Plenty of Scenery With Company.

The pretty chorus girls with "The Time, the Place and the Girl," are all in the city today, having arrived on the noon train from Baker City. The scenery carried by the company is extensive and elaborate. The seat sale indicates a large audience to hear the catchy songs and witness the opera which is touted as being exceptionally good this year on account of the clever leaders and capable choruses.

The scene of "The Time, the Place and the Girl" which comes to the Steward theatre Wednesday, Nov. 30, is laid in the mountains of Virginia at a "rest cure" whither Happy Johnny Hicks, and his pal, Tom Cunningham, have fled from the result of an escapade of Cunningham's in a gambling house in Boston. The complexities of the plot occur while the "rest cure" is in a state of quarantine with all the servants absent. The guests are forced to do the work themselves—a condition that inspires mutiny among some of them. Of course there is a pretty love story. The production is unusually artistic and the chorus is the liveliest and prettiest crowd of girls that ever were gathered in one company. Messrs. Adams and Hough are the authors of the play, and the music is by Joseph E. Howard. Ned Weyburn produced the twelve musical numbers. With the prestige of having created the longest run ever made by any show in Chicago, in addition to ten weeks in Boston and sixty times in New York to crowded houses, and three highly prosperous road seasons, "The Time, the Place and the Girl" carries at least one other distinction: It is that this is a comedy with music and a plot. The combining of a story that can be understood, with music of the whistly sort and wonderful dances by pretty girls have been the pivotal features of its enormous success.

The most sensational of the dances is the "Dixie" number, which in combination with the "Uncle Sam's Best Girl" is the finale of the second act. It was staged like the other dances by New Weyburn and is undoubtedly the acme of his work as a producer.

George Abner heads the cast again. He appears as a happy-go-lucky gambler with a typical and prolific vocabulary, who corners all situations when he finds himself caught at a quarantined sanitarium. Among those in the cast are Amanda Hendrick, Jeanette Patterson, Gertrude Smythe and many others, while the chorus of forty is considered the most beautiful on tour this season.

When your feet are wet and cold, and your body chilled through and through from exposure, take a big dose of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, bathe your feet in hot water before going to bed, and you are almost certain to ward off a severe cold. For sale by all dealers.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. E. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all dealers.
