

REV. LAWRENCE C. ELLIOTT, THE EVANGELIST.

Mr. Elliott is a property owner and resident of La Grande. His home is on Spring street. He has been conducting the special revival meetings at the Methodist church for two weeks—Every afternoon at 2:30 he gives helpful Bible readings and he preaches at 7:30. These are of very great strength and many are feeling themselves ben-

Hot Lake News.

Hot Lake, Dec. 2 (Special)—Mrs. Larry Larison of Baker City was brought to Hot Lake this morning to be operated upon by Doctor Phy for appendicitis, but it was found the operation was not necessary. Baker City physicians advised immediate operation and she was brought to Hot Lake at their request. Mr. Larison, relieved and comforted by the encouraging diagnosis by Dr. Uby, continued his trip through Eastern Oregon for his Portland house.

Improving very rapidly from her recent operation. She is hopeful of soon being able to leave the hospital here. Postmaster Davis of Union is at the lake today suffering from an acute attack of rheumatism.

Sinking Irrigation Well.

Baker Bros., of South La Grande are drilling a deep well for Mr. McEwen at May Park. The well will be used for irrigation purposes according to present plans.

PERRY COMES TO CITY TONIGHT

BANQUET TO BE GIVEN IN HIS HONOR AT THE FOLEY.

President of Oregon Retail Grocers Association Gues in City Today.

N. A. Perry, president of the Oregon Retail Grocers' association, will be tendered a reception and banquet at the Foley hotel this evening at 7 o'clock, when local businessmen will be introduced to the president. Mr. Perry has been in Wallowa county drumming up interest in the coming state convention at Salem, and wound up his campaign in this particular section by visiting Summerville this afternoon.

All business men are urged to attend this banquet, as appropriate speeches and a general shoulder-rub meetings will be the order of the evening.

Sheriff "Til" Taylor Offers Reward.

"I will add $50 to the reward offered by Mr. Haw," said Sheriff "Til" Taylor this morning, discussing the mutilation of Mr. Haw's stallion at the Oregon Feed Yards.

"Til" said that as soon as the county court was in session he would make an application for a reward to be offered by the court.

The rewards offered now amount to $250 and the scores of amateur sleuths have found their clues run to dead ends.

There are no further indications to the criminal for criminals. The suggestion of a personal enemy is not scouted.

Although Marshal Gurdane came in for some criticism for letting the two tramps go free after examining them, it appears this criticism is unjustified. Both Mr. Haw and Sheriff Taylor urged that the men be released, both men being confident they could have had nothing to do with the crime.

It is generally agreed that Gurdane did particularly good work in capturing the men when the only clue was their footsteps.—Pendleton Live Wire.

ELECTRIC SCALE MAN HERE.

Demonstrating New Contrivance in Manner of Weighing Merchandise.

J. E. Stover, representing the Toledo Electric Scale Co. of Toledo, is here today demonstrating a new electric scale. The affair is neatly gotten up and is arranged on an electrical basis so that the present system of springs is removed in favor of the old balance system. The Russell meat market was one of the first to buy the new machine, which is the newest thing on the market in the scale line.

Take Care!

Remember that when your kidneys are affected your life is in danger. M. Mayer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "Foley Kidney Pills are a wonderful discovery and I heartily recommend their use. My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse each day. I felt sluggish and tired, my kidney action was irregular and infrequent with a fine sand-like substance. While the disease was at its worst I started using Foley Kidney Pills. Their prompt and efficient action was marvelous. Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years."

Big Class December 7.

L. E. McNabb is now getting up a class of Yeomen for La Grande to take place December 7, also the election of officers for 1911 will take place at that time.

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me." For sale by all dealers.

The Irresolute Post.

The sunshine lingered in her eyes And glinted through her hair. She wasn't witty, no, nor wise. But she was wondrous fair. I loved the ground beneath her shoe— She wore a slender three— But, ah, I'd not the courage true To ask if she loved me!

Full twenty years have passed away— In poetry that's a score— I meet her nearly every day And love her more and more. Her hair is not a sunny crown, Her heavy step resounds. But she's a million sated down And weighs two hundred pounds. —Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Some Characteristics. "Willie, do you know the domestic birds?" "Yes, ma'am." "Name one." "The mule." "No, no; the mule isn't a bird." "Our blood man says our mule is."

Works Both Ways. It's the little-pled on little That a fortune makes, and yet Piling up the little dribbles Is what runs us into debt.

Too Apt to Break Out. "Do you know Miss Fleighty?" "Yes; she lives in the fat above me." "She is a great singer in her mind." "In her mind! Gracious, I wish she would keep more of her singing there."

Less For Her. "Seatem won't pay a thing unless he has to. He has even been sued by the tailor for his wedding suit." "His wife must feel awful about it." "She does. His lawyer tells him he will have to pay it."

You Must Read This if you Want Benefit. J. W. Greer, Greenwood, La., suffered with a severe case of lumbago. "At times the pains were so intense, I was forced to hypodermic injections for relief," he says. "These attacks started with a slight pain in the small of my back which gradually became fairly paralyzing in effect. My attention was attracted to Foley's Kidney Remedy and I am glad to say after using this wonderful medicine I am no longer bothered in any way by my old enemy, lumbago." Hills Drug store.
