DON'T EXPERIMENT WITH YOUR EYES.

If your eyes trouble you, consult Dr. Mendelsohn, whose skill, knowledge and practical experience are highly appreciated by most men of truth and integrity.

THE MOST CONVINCING TRUTH is to ask your neighbor, your physician, or any business man in the city. You do not pay for HOT AIR. The service and material that you get are far superior to any in Union county. Wherever you see the name of Dr. Mendelsohn, you can depend upon it that it is strictly reliable. His word is as good as his bond and nearly 2200 people in Union and Wallowa counties will testify to these facts.

DO NOT BE MISLED.
NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR EXAMINATION.
ALL BROKEN GLASSES REPLACED WHILE YOU WAIT.

DR. M. P. MENDELSON

DOCTOR OF OPTICS
 AT 1105 ADAMS AVE.
 FOLEY HOTEL BUILDING.

Office hours, 9:00 a. m. to 12 m.; 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. Evenings by appointment.

PERSONALS.

George Sutherland, the contractor has returned to Walla Walla.

W. F. Crone of Hot Lake was over to La Grande last night, a guest at the Sommer.

Mrs. W. D. Long is in Pendleton to spend a few days visiting with friends there.

Mrs. J. C. Weatherby of Joseph stopped at the Sommer last night while transacting business here.

F. N. Hoffeditz, cashier of the Summerville lumber company, is at the Foley today transacting business matters.

Grover Floyd of Pendleton was a guest at the Sommer this morning while looking after business matters here.

John Langford of Union is in the city today, stopping at the Foley. Mr. Langford has been in Yakima for some time.

John G. McAllister, with headquarters at Baker City, is stopping at the Foley. Mr. McAllister represents a wholesale fruit and grocery line.

W. R. Kivette has moved from 1620 Spring street to the Hubbard building on Fourth street, having leased half of the building owned by Dr. Hubbard.

Former Chief of Police L. Rayburn is in the city again. He intends to remain here until about the first of the year. He has been in the sound country most of the time since leaving La Grande a year ago.

Members of La Grande Lodge No. 433, B. P. O. E. are requested to meet at their hall at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Memorial services begin at 2:30.

When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

Convictions.
 "Why," said this Welsh rabbit, "Bjonesey" asked Bjonesey as he stirred the golden sensation in the -baling dish.

"No, thanks, Bjonesey," returned Bjonesey, patting his stomach tenderly. "I am unamaterably opposed to all corporation taxes."—Harper's Weekly.

Off Again.
 "I met your husband in town. He was very much elated."

"The villain! He told me he would never take another drop."—Houston Post.

He who would do a great thing well must first have done the simplest thing perfectly.—Cady.

Insects.
 The world of the lower animals is teeming. In 1905 the naturalist Sharpers listed a quarter of a million insects and expressed the belief that a quarter of a million was only a tenth part of the number of insects on earth.

Magnetic Action of the Earth.
 According to Gauss, the magnetic action of the earth is the same as that which would be exerted if in each cubic yard there were eight bar magnets, each weighing one pound.

Palm Wine.
 In addition to being a beverage, palm wine may be used as a yeast, an insecticide and a disinfectant, and it also will remove rust from metals.

Sunsets.
 Some modern artists claim, contrary to general belief, that the prettiest sunset colorings are to be seen in the cities, owing to the dust in the air. The open country, however, affords the greatest sweep of the sky.

Italy's Tax on Salt.
 Italy's tax on salt is a grievous burden upon the poor. The profit from the salt monopoly goes to the huge expense of armaments. The armaments are required by the triple alliance, and the triple alliance is required by the position of Italy as a first class power.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. R. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all dealers.

Holiday Season Opens at the Golden Rule

All former efforts have been outdone. All preceding holiday exhibits have been eclipsed, and nowhere in this whole eastern Oregon country has such a magnificent purchase of Holiday Goods been made by any firm as that of the Golden Rule Company.

Anticipating the demands of every one choice things have been added until at the present the Holiday Shopper has but to enter the store and spend a few minutes in selecting what the taste calls for.

From the endless variety of toys and children's dainties to the staple articles for pretty women and sturdy men; from the rattle for baby to the fancy china for the good mother. Everything to choose from and at prices which are very low, indeed.

The early buyer is always in luck for the lines are complete. Be that early buyer this year and you will not regret it.

Remember, opening of the holiday season is the big event of the year at this store. Small amounts of money spent with us for holiday goods makes many people happy.

Yours for a delightful Yuletide,

THE GOLDEN RULE CO.

A number of articles carry special prices until Christmas, such as Ribbons, Fancy Belts, Neckwear, Silk Waists, Silk Kimonos, Etc.

Society

A farewell reception was given Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pattison, 1304 Pennsylvania Avenue, for Mrs. D. E. Cox, who leaves Sunday night for California to make her future home. The Pattison home was tastefully decorated with house ferns and the invited guests spent a delightful social afternoon. Elaborate refreshments consisting of poited shrimp sandwiches, saltine wafers, midget pickles, cake and coffee was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Grant Lincoln. Those present were: Mrs. D. E. Cox, Mrs. B. W. Grandy, Mrs. A. E. Jones, Mrs. J. K. Wright, Mrs. T. Ormond, Mrs. R. Smith, Mrs. J. A. Fraker, Mrs. Earl Jackson, Mrs. J. P. Hally, Mrs. D. Fitzgerald, Mrs. Stageberg, Mrs. J. A. Whitby, Mrs. King, Mrs. G. L. Lincoln, Mrs. Frank Harris, Mrs. J. Wade, Mrs. Staley, Mrs. B. G. Fritz, Mrs. S. R. Haworth, Mrs. J. A. Arbuckle, Mrs. Chas. Smith, Miss Ada Fowler, Mrs. W. D. Long, Mrs. J. A. Cates. Regrets were received from: Mrs. Geo. Grant, Mrs. Thome, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. A. W. Nelson, Mrs. A. L. Richardson, Mrs. H. C. Stuart, Mrs. F. H. Green, Mrs. Anthony, Miss Alexandria, Mrs. W. N. Monroe, Mrs. J. D. McKennon and Mrs. Dell Jackson.

The Lyle Tuesday Musicals will meet Tuesday at 2:30 p. m., December 6th at their club parlors on Sixth street for the study of American composers which will be continued. A very interesting program under the direction of Mrs. O'Connell and Mrs. Moore has been arranged including the study of Gilchrist, Mason and Chadwick. Several compositions of these men will be played or sung. Mrs. A. L. Richardson will report from the meet of the general federation of state clubs which met recently at The Dalles. Mrs. Richardson was a soloist at an evening session during the convention.

Mrs. Bridges will favor the Musicals with a reading. The roll call will be Expressions on Music, by some of our greatest people. A full attendance is desired. Plans for an open musicale will be outlined at this meeting.

On Thursday evening the A. T. S. club, a society organized out of graduates of the La Grande high school, gave its initial party at the home of O. E. Silverthorne. The hostesses being Miss Margaret Silverthorne and Miss Lillian Baker. A delightful evening was spent by the old "grads", in playing games which consisted of an indoor track meet and a song guessing contest. In these events the team captained by Frank Earls was victorious and the prizes for the song guessing contest were carried off by Stanley Carpy and Miss Pauline Newton. A delicious three course luncheon was served. Those present were:

Misses: Irma Alkine, Myrtle Burke, Wilma Rhinehart, Anna Roesch, Phyllis Moore, Pauline Newton, Nellie Pickens. Messrs: Stanley Carpy, Frank Earls, Harold Grady, Hal Bohnenkamp, Joe Ingle, Virgil Bolton, Mr. Brady, Mr. Rosenbaum, Mr. Donahue, Frank Ralston.

To meet Miss Jessie Hale, daughter of Judge Hale of Grants Pass, and a prominent society girl of the Southern metropolis, Mrs. Herman Selgriest entertained informally Friday afternoon at her home 1906 Fourth street. Sewing occupied the attention of the guests. A dainty two course luncheon was served the guests who were: Miss Hale, Mrs. Oscar Jackson, Mrs. H. M. Bay, Mrs. Lloyd Scriber, Mrs. Hugh McCall, Mrs. C. B. Clarke, Miss Maude Snodgrass, Miss Irene Murphey and Miss Etta Foley.

The Decum club was entertained last evening by Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Scroggins. Mrs. J. J. Carr won the prizes.

Mrs. Turner Oliver entertained the afternoon section of the Kaffee Klatch Friday afternoon.

Mrs. A. W. Nelson entertained the La Jaunesse club Thursday evening at her home on Pennsylvania avenue.

Mrs. J. C. Gulling was hostess this week to the Five Hundred club. Mrs. H. C. Grady won the honors.

Though only a few adults heard her and the audience was principally made up of high school students, Miss Dack Montgomery last evening proved herself an expert both as a singer and reader. Her leading reading was "A Man Without a Country," and in it she showed more than ordinary accomplishments. James W. Riley's "The Runaway Boy" and "The Impetuous Resolve," Fred Emerson Brook's "The Whistling Boy," and "Sweet Miss Mary" were some of the most popular of her numbers.
