PERT PARAGRAPHS.

THERE is lots of satisfaction in having something laid by for a rainy day, but sometimes the cashier gets both the cash and the satisfaction.

Why do we always remember the disagreeable job we have to do and forget the one we really don't mind doing?

It is easy enough to pick flaws in the other fellow's work, but could you do better yourself?

Some persons are good because they are too lazy to be bad.

A gentleman may do as she pleases—if she has the price.

Every mother knows one boy that wouldn't smoke cigarettes.

Figures don't lie, but they furnish a basis.

Nothing disgusts a man so much as to tell the latest smart thing that baby said to a bachelor friend and have the same man come back with a story about his cute little niece.
 Bachelors should be fair game.

If you don't expect too much in this world you will save yourself a heap of disappointments.

To Make a Showing.

"This automobile seems to be a swell machine, all right," said the man who was looking it over and taking a sample ride. "Could you let me take it a week on trial?"

"That is against the rules," said the salesman.

"But I ought to have a few days to see if I really like it."

"But why a week?" asked the salesman.

"Well," replied the man in a burst of confidence, "we are going to have company for just that long."

Fair Exchange.

"There comes the very man I want to see—Jenks, the scribbler. Hello, Jenks; you are mighty handy with your pen. I want you to get me up some bright verses for the lodge meeting next week."

"With pleasure, old man. And, say, you are mighty handy with the wheel-barrow. Come around tomorrow and clean the ashes out of my basement."

FALLING HAIR.

Easy to Stop It and Make It Lustrous and Beautiful.

If your hair is falling out; if you have dull, unattractive hair, or if you need a daily hair dressing, read what Mrs. Hettie Hedgeman of Nelsonville, Erie county, Ohio, writes June 3, 1910, about Parisian Sage:

"I used Parisian Sage for falling hair and find it the finest thing I ever heard of. My hair was falling out by combs full, and I could run my fingers through it and they would hang full of loose hair. I washed my hair and got a bottle of Parisian Sage and used two applications, and I could see a great difference. My hair was lustrous and nice and had almost stopped falling out, and by the use of one more bottle it stopped altogether."

For women, for men or for children, Parisian Sage is without any doubt the finest preparation for the hair. It is guaranteed by the Newlin Drug Co. to stop hair from falling; to eradicate dandruff and stop itching scalp in two weeks, or money back. It is a most daintily perfumed and refreshing hair dressing, free

Holiday Season Opens at the Golden Rule

All former efforts have been outdone. All preceding holiday exhibits have been eclipsed, and nowhere in this whole eastern Oregon country has such a magnificent purchase of Holiday Goods been made by any firm as that of the Golden Rule Company.

Anticipating the demands of every one choice things have been added until at the present the Holiday Shopper has but to enter the store and spend a few minutes in selecting what the taste calls for.

From the endless variety of toys and children's dainties to the staple articles for pretty women and sturdy men; from the rattle for baby to the fancy china for the good mother. Everything to choose from and at prices which are very low, indeed.

The early buyer is always in luck for the lines are complete. Be that early buyer this year and you will not regret it.

Remember, opening of the holiday season is the big event of the year at this store. Small amounts of money spent with us for holiday goods makes many people happy.

Yours for a delightful Yuletide,

THE GOLDEN RULE CO.

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me." For sale by all dealers.
