"THE GIRL CHILD"

Strickland W. Gillilan, Brother of Doctor J. D. Gillilan of La Grande, Publishes New Classic.

The most spontaneous irrepressible effervescent humorist in America today is probably that tall author of "Said Finnigin to Flannigan." Strickland W. Gillilan is more than a mere jokesmith who pounds out stuff for the press. He is actually a real sympathetic temperamental genius who would be a great musician if he could only learn to play for he is full of music, music of the soul, His melody is of that higher realm of spirit where an artist's touch turns the common folks into patron saints and paves heaven with the flowers from the country wayside.
 Back of Gillilan's fun is the real

th' ewe-lamb of the fold.
 Dassen't ever pop th' question, even though she's lost in love; Has t' set an' wait till some man labels 'er 'is turtle-dove.
 Yit is wa'n't a boy, by gracious! when it come' th' other day, But we've got o' notion that we'll keep it, any way.
 'Course 'twas dreadful disapp'intin' that it couldn't bin a boy.
 An' th' tears we shed or swallowed wa'n't no sparkin' tears o' joy; But she's jest so small an' cunnin', an' she snuggles up so sweet, With 'er fists like velvet rosebuds

"I had been troubled with constipation for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me." For sale by all dealers.

Bury Mrs. Eddy in Cemetery.

Boston, Dec. 6.—After a consultation with Glover it was definitely decided that the body of Mrs. Eddy will lie in Mount Auburn cemetery at Cambridge, Mass., and not in the crypt built in the foundation of the mother church in this city. Funeral arrangements were completed today. They will be a short prayer, a reading from the scriptures, a reading from her own writings and then the body will be borne from the home to the cemetery. Only a few friends and relatives will attend the services Thursday.

The announcement in a cemetery caused a mild surprise among some of the members of the church, knowing the love Mrs. Eddy bore for the Mother Church, and it was rumored she would find a resting place in its walls.

Will Not Contest Will.

Chicago, Dec. 6.—George Glover, son of Mrs. Eddy, accompanied by his son and daughter, arrived here today from South Dakota, enroute to Boston to attend his mother's funeral. He said he would not contest his mother's private estate but refused to talk concerning her religious views or his own.

J. W. Greer, Greenwood, La., suffered with a severe case of lumbago.
 "At times the pains were so intense, I was forced to hypodermic injections for relief," he says. "These attacks started with a slight pain in the small of my back which gradually became fairly paralyzing in effect. My attention was attracted to Foley's Kidney Remedy and I am glad to say after using this wonderful medicine I am no longer bothered in any way by my old enemy, lumbago."

Bishop C. C. McCabe and Strickland W. Gillilan. This is the Latest Picture of Both of These Nationally Known Men. Mr. Gillilan is the Author of a New Compilation Entitled "Including Finnigan." sentiment of heart and mind that grips us and reveals our own feelings, latent but not expressible. Perbes and Company, 325 Dearborn St., Chicago, have gotten out a very clever volume entitled, "Including Finnigan" that ought to find a ready sale among the lyceum and chautauqua people anywhere. This little book is $1.00 and contains, as the author admits, some verses that are hilarious, others that are serious, nearly all are philosphical. Perhaps his surest touches are given to the Girl-Child, which he gives with such effect during his humorous lecture and for that reason we wish to reproduce that beautiful simple heart poem—The Girl Child.

 'Course we'd figgered on a boy-child, same as people always does—Baby-girls is just th' uselessest they is er ever was.
 Helpless when they're kids an' helpless when they're middle-aged or old—All th' famby turns pector for an' er little wrinkled feet—Clingin' close, jest like th' tendrils of th' mornin' glory vine As it clusters up th' porch-post on a piece o' cotton twine—Never knowin' she hain't welcome as th' flowers is in May;

 So we've somehow got a notion that we'll keep 'er, any way.
 Then, ag'in, I thought o' mother—she was onct a baby-girl.
 Ain't no tellin' jest which eyester is th' one that hides the pearl.
 Who'd 'a' knowed when she was little that she'd ever be so great, An' would make my dear old daddy sich a stiddy runnin'-mate?
 Then th' one that lays an' snuggles with this bran'-new baby hyer—Would my life be worth th' livin' if it hadn't bin fer her?
 She was jest as pink an' helpless as this new one in one day; So it's purty easy guessin' that we'll keep her, any way.
