SCHOOL TAX LEVY FIXED

ELEVEN MILLS AS AGAINST FIVE LAST YEAR.

Provides for Retiring Bonds and Cleaning up Improvement Expenses

A tax of eleven mills, as compared with five mills last year has been levied by the school board following the election of last Saturday afternoon. This increase over last year's requirements, provides for retirement of $5,000 new school house bonds, completing the furnishings and finishings of the building and installing the heating plant on the North Side. At the end of the year all these dragging details will have been cleaned up and it will be possible to return to the normal levy again.

Coyotes Show New Courage.

That the coyotes are infected with something that has changed the nature of the beasts is attested by the experience of Jim and Ed Day, on the Day ranch 15 miles north of this city, the night of December 5th, according to the Enterprise News Record.

A coyote chased the Day's dogs to the house and tried to follow them under the house. Day came out with a lantern to see what the trouble was and Ed, followed with a 22 rifle. The beast turned on Jim who kept it off with the lantern. Jim, the coyote and the dogs fought all over the yard, being so mixed up that Ed could not get a shot. Finally Jip spotted a pitchfork and dropping the lantern he grabbed the fork and pinned the brute to the ground on its next lunge. Ed then shot it.

Another rabid dog died in Grouse yesterday, this one belonged to Mr. Yoeman. Four dead sheep were also found near this man's place yesterday, which have all the appearances of having died of hydrophobia. The rumor we spoke of last week of a cow of E. Sanday's having died was false. The man telling the news in town was not well acquainted and evidently got names mixed.
