BOX CAR THIEF CAUGHT HERE

CAUGHT BY OFFICER McLAUGHLIN IN LA GRANDE.

Taken to Pendleton Where He Will Stand Trial on the Charge.

A man named Hinchcliff, caught here on a charge of box car robbery, was returned to Pendleton last night in custody of Tom Gurdane, the Pendleton official. Speaking of the capture and the charge, the Pendleton East Oregonian says regarding the case:

Hinchcliff, the third person implicated in the O. R. & N. boxcar robbery, has been captured in La Grande by Officer McLaughlin of that city and is being held until Agent O'Brien of the local O. R. & N. office gets some instructions as to the disposition to be made of him. It is probable, however that he will be brought over from La Grande tonight and be given a preliminary hearing some time tomorrow. He was formerly employed by the railroad company in the local yards as a fireman.

ex-switchman who was arrested Sunday night and is now in the city jail, is ready to go to the penitentiary according to the Chief of Police Gurdane. He confessed his part in the robbery to the chief last night and told him the story of his life. From this confession it seems that he has been an inmate of a state prison before. The woman who was arrested still denies her complicity in the affair and has retained Attorney Will M. Peterson to defend her.

NO CROWD TO DO BUSINESS

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETING CALLED OFF UNTIL THURSDAY

At That Time Enough to do Business Will be Recruited is Belief.

Only a mere handful of men present last evening at the meeting of the members of the Commercial club to elect officers or to outline the future policy of the club. As a consequence the meeting was postponed until Thursday evening when strenuous efforts will be put forth to have enough men out to transact business and either reorganize the club on a new basis or make a radical change in the working systems of the association.
