Have Been
AmazedIf his vision could have extended far enough into the haze of evolution to foresee the ultimate triumph of incandescent electric lighting—the GENERAL ELECTRIC MADZA LAMP.The sage old philosopher flew his kite during a thunder storm, and by means of a key attracted and discovered electricity, but evolution decreed that modern inventive genius should discover an incandescent lamp that is revolutionizing artificial light.THE GENERAL ELECTRIC MADZA LAMP gives nearly three times the light of the ordinary carbon incandescent—and costs no more to operate. In addition to this it gives light of a vastly superior quality—a clear white light like the sun's rays.Everywhere people are having their houses wired for electric light, since the invention of the GENERAL ELECTRIC MADZA
LAMP. It has made electricity as cheap as it is convenient.
Come in for a moment today and let us prove to your entire satisfaction that there is no longer a possible excuse for you to be without the greatest of all household conveniences—electric light.EASTERN

RED 3762*Draying of all kinds*LOCAL THEATERS*At The Isis.A Mexican Legend is the title of a picture at the Isis that everyone should see as it is well worth your time. The picture deals with the Jesuit priests in Mexico in the early days.
As the priests come out of their monastery on a bright June day they are attacked by a band of Indians and a number slain and others made captive. The Indians for want of a new mode of torture drag one of the venerable priests into a graveyard and removing the cover of a crypt throw the priest into it. He awakes at the bottom badly stunned but after a time is brought back to consciousness and beholds the apparition of his Master before him, who leads him out of the crypt and starts him on the way to wards help. On the way he istaken from exhaustion, but the Master is always there with an encouraging word which helps him to reach civilization, where he tells his story and the Mexican Rurales start for the scene. Reaching there they find the Indians in a drunken state from the effects of wine taken from the cellars of the monasteries, and they are quickly put out of commission. This beautiful picture ends with the Master giving his blessing upon the rescued priests and soldiers. The Feud and the Turkey is the title of another good picture which was sent by mistake, and which will be replaced by A Son of Old Ireland; The Children's Revolt pictures the pranks of two pampered children, who escaped from the Master's watchful eyes at the sea shore.At the Orpheum.With the appearance of Leo Bays in artistic feminine attire, last night, the Orpheum presents another headliner.
The skit presented by Bays is both novel and clever and is above theordinary run of vaudeville acts. Burlin & Ustin, the dancing boys continued favorites with their educated feet in intricate and fancy dancing. Golden and Keating in a singing, dancing and monologue sketch closes the program.

A Scene from "Nancy" at the Steward, Dec. 14.

"NANCY" THIS EVENING.Date Erroneously Announced for Last Evening—Actually Tonight.To an error in dates is responsible the fact that the Steward attraction "Nancy" was announced in the Observer last evening for last night. The show comes tonight and the company is here to make the presentation this evening. The show is well recommended by other Oregon towns where it has appeared to date. Remember the date.A Simple Safeguard for Mothers.
Mrs. D. Gikerson, 326 Ingles, Ave., Youngstown, Ohio, gained wisdom by experience. "My little girl had a severe cold and coughed almost continuously. My sister recommended Foley's Honey and Tar. The first dose I gave her relieved the inflammation in her throat and after using one bottle her throat and lungs were entirely free from inflammation. Since then I always keep a bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar in the house as I know it is a sure cure for coughs and colds."
