Franklin Would Live Again Amazed

If his vision could have extended far enough into the haze of evolution to foresee the ultimate triumph of incandescent electric lighting—the GENERAL ELECTRIC MADZA LAMP.

The sage old philosopher flew his kite during a thunder storm, and by means of a key attracted and discovered electricity, but evolution decreed that modern inventive genius should discover an incandescent lamp that is revolutionizing artificial light.

THE GENERAL ELECTRIC MADZA LAMP gives nearly three times the light of the ordinary carbon incandescent—and costs no more to operate. In addition to this it gives light of a vastly superior quality—a clear white light like the sun's rays.

Everywhere people are having their houses wired for electric light, since the invention of the GENERAL ELECTRIC MADZA LAMP. It has made electricity as cheap as it is convenient.

Some in for a moment today and let us prove to your entire satisfaction that there is no longer a possible excuse for you to be without the greatest of all household conveniences—electric light.

LOCAL THEATERS

At the Isis.
Manager Sherwood of the Isis picture house presents an entirely new set of pictures at his house tonight. For description see the house ad.

"Seven Days" Coming.
"Seven Days," the funniest comedy of recent years, which has been running at the Astor Theatre, New York, over four hundred nights, will begin a special northwestern tour on Christmas day, under the direction of Wagnhals & Kemper. Local theatregoers will be glad to hear that this city is included in the route because "Seven Days" has not only won success by its clever humor and highly entertaining qualities but because of its wholesomeness and absolute cleanliness. The piece, while being excruciatingly funny, does not contain one suggestive line or idea, so the people of this territory may feel absolutely safe in sending their mothers, wives or sisters to see the play.

At The Orpheum.
If you don't see Billy Robinson and his peaninies in a Dream of the South at the Orpheum you will miss a good treat in the vaudeville line. Billy Robinson's name has been connected with the minstrelsy for years and his production last night was up to his reputation as a funmaker. Robinson took the character of an old negro mammy and proved a true mother to his four mischievous offspring. The peaninny quartet was good, their voices rich and blended splendidly in old southern negro songs. The solos by the individuals were also good. The act ended up with some Mississippi levee dancing, in which the youngsters executed most everything from the buck and wing to the sailors hornpipe. Grace Zampa, a clever little dancer and song artist is a new number on the program that is very good.
