

TONY & SCRANTON

SUCCESSORS TO C. C. PENINGTON & CO.

WHEN we say that we are now showing by far the best values and the Finest Assortment of Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishings for Men ever shown by any store in La Grande, we know we are not exaggerating in the least.

---An inspection of new goods will prove a pleasure to you, we are sure, and will be appreciated by us.

Men's Outfitters

PERSONALS.

Ed. L. Davis is over from Seattle on business.

A. L. Smith of Portland is registered at the Savoy.

H. A. Blair of Huntington is a guest at the Savoy today.

O. Hansen came in from Shaniko yesterday and is quartered at the Savoy.

Dan Sommers of Elgin came up yesterday evening enroute to Portland.

C. A. Robinson of Red Wing, Minn., and F. H. Green of this city, both stockholders and officers in the Blue Mountain creamery here, went to Union on company business this morning.

George W. Thomas came in from Cove last evening and is quartered at the Savoy.

J. Tweedy, Carl Tweedy and N. E. Schwallier of Hot Lake were guests at the Foley hotel last evening.

G. A. Benedict, special agent for the General Land office, is here looking over the records in the land office.

H. E. Driver, a prominent merchant of Walla, was in the city this morning transacting business matters.

County Judge J. C. Henry arrived home this morning from Portland where he has been attending the State Good Roads convention.

W. K. Davis has moved his family to La Grande for the winter. They were located at Meacham during the summer and fall months.

F. C. Bramwell, register of the local United States land office is transacting business in Baker today. He expects to return tomorrow.

Ex-County Commissioner Robert Blumenstein returned home this morning to Elgin. Bob is a prominent democrat in his home town.

Attorney Robert H. Lloyd, formerly located at Elgin writes from Mt. Vernon, Wash., where he is enjoying a successful business in law.

Mrs. Fitzgerald is ill with tonsillitis. Laura Green Willis went to Hot Lake this morning where she has accepted a position as stenographer.

Nate Ardrey, the piano tuner is in the city again. He went to Elgin for the day but returns tomorrow and will be quartered at the Savoy while here.

Billy Welch, county commissioner of Baker county, stopped in La Grande today while on his way home from a good roads meeting in Portland.

R. J. Slater of Pendleton stopped off in La Grande the first of the week. Mr. Slater is on his way to Washington, D. C., to look after some land interests.

J. L. Lambrith the trustee for the Byllesbyes in the proposed gas franchise, left today for Baker City where he will spend a few days visiting friends.

Mrs. J. R. Wardrop of Wellsville, Utah, returned to her home today after having been called here by the death of her daughter, the late Mrs. F. C. Bramwell.

F. A. Harmon, manager of the Eastern Oregon Light and Power Co. came down from Baker City today to look after the business. Baker is headquarters for the corporation.

H. H. Scudder, district manager for the Spokesman-Review with headquarters at Walla Walla passed through the city this morning enroute to Joseph. He was joined here by Circulation Manager Broughn.

Samuel Pace, one of the staunch democrats of Walla county, returned this morning from Portland where he has attended a meeting of the state Democratic committee. He went on to his home this morning.

Robert Clark of Cove was in the city today with a load of produce

THE ISIS

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM

The Masquerade Cop—Essauy.
Hank and Lank.
Grandmother's Plot—Gaumont.
Scenic Film.
Sunshine Sue—Biograph.
Song—Show Me the Way to Dreamland.

Beautiful dishes given to lady patrons of the matinee. See display in lobby.

—AMISSON 10c

which he readily disposed of. La Grande has the reputation of being one of the best markets in eastern Oregon.

Jay Reynolds returned home this morning from an extended stay in Cory, Wis., where he went to attend the Thanksgiving football game and to attend the Ralph Reynolds-Miss Kay wedding Wednesday.

Jerry P. Rusk, accompanied by his wife were in the city last night from Joseph, Mo. Rusk, recently re-elected as joint representative from Union and Walla counties, is heralded as the coming speaker of the lower house.

C. M. Lockwood, the abstractor at the La Grande Investment company, is having his household goods moved into the residence at 1303 N. avenue. His wife will come to La Grande from Enterprise, their former home in a few days.

E. P. McDaniel of Baker City stopped over yesterday for a few hours. "Mac", as he is better known by all of the early pioneers of the county, made the foundation of his fortune in Cove where he still retains considerable property.

Arthur M. Runnells, city attorney of Joseph, reached here this morning from Portland and is awaiting the arrival of tonight's train which will bring his mother from Chicago. Then they go to Joseph where Mrs. Runnells will spend the holidays.

G. J. Graham, a local bollermaker has returned from Spokane, bringing with him a bride. He was married there to Miss Ellen Sheehy and Mr. and Mrs. Graham are now located in temporary rooms on N. avenue but plan to buy property here and locate permanently.

Miss Louise Kelly who has been spending the summer and fall at home is preparing to go to Chicago and again re-enter her calling as an actress. She has an engagement there lasting several months. It is probable that her mother, Mrs. N. S. Kelley will accompany her.

H. H. Swartz, Jr., a son of the well known attorney of Portland who was formerly chief of the special agency

HE WILL BE HERE
MONDAY, DEC. 19

EVERYBODY KNOWS HIM

WATCH OUT
THE FAIR DEPT'S STORE
LA GRANDE

department of the entire United States under the commissioner of the general land office, is in La Grande today. The young man is a well known timber cruiser.

John C. Coe of Portland is a Sommer hotel guest today.

Harry Wells of Portland was a Sommer guest while here today.

Dan Hynes the Portland drummer is calling on his friends and the "Fifty Seven Variety" trade today.

Mrs. R. Fairbanks of Portland is a guest at the Sommer today.

J. B. Stoppel and J. Callahan are Portland people registered at the Sommer.

C. W. Powell of Boise was a business visitor in the city last night stopping at the Sommer while here.

W. L. Skipton, the Salem horsebuyer will be here tomorrow to buy a carload of fairly heavy draft horses.

Jennie Grants of Haines is registered at the Sommer while transacting business matters in the city today.

Steam Heat Turned On.

The Orpheum theatre is now heated throughout by steam heat, the plant having been completed yesterday. Last night the audience was housed in a warm comfortable place.

Want ads pay, one cent a word

FREE BREAD

We are going to give away tomorrow, Saturday

ONE LOAF of BREAD FREE to any lady or gentleman calls in the store made with new sanitary Bread Mixer the Turkey Red Flour the La Grande Milling Co. the Blue Stem Flour from Pioneer Mill Co.

Royal Grocer and Bakery

The LAST Days Before Christmas

are apt to be days of hurry and indiscriminate buying. Do not buy carelessly. Come here and you'll find plenty of gifts—mostly articles of every day utility. Such goods make the best gifts. Hand painted china, cut glass, perfumes, mirrors, books, albums, hair brushes, clothes brushes, pocket books, bags, pocket knives, scissors, combs, hat brushes, shaving sets, toilet sets, razors, safety razors, pipes stationery, purses, fountain pens, chafing dishes, cigars confectionery, etc.

These goods are staples with us and unless we have an unusually heavy trade in the next few days lines will not be broken before Christmas. We would advise, though, that you select before the last minute. There's excellent choice now.

Wright
Drug Compn'y
Both Phones.

Second Annual CASH CLEARANCE SALE

For the next Forty Days, Beginning December 16, every piece of Furniture in the house will be reduced from 15 to 40 per cent

Carpets, Rugs, Trunks, Suit Cases and EVERYTHING GOES Wall Paper EVERYTHING GOES

$35 Buffets going at $27.50

$18 Couches going at $14

$40 Dressers going at $30

COME EARLY WHILE STOCK IS COMPLETE

W. H. Bohnenkamp Co.