Henry Van Dyke's story in the January Scribner has for its hero the Prodigal Son. Dr. Van Dyke's journeys in the Holy Land have enabled him to give picturesqueness and reality to the background of his tale.

Ernest Thompson Seton, in the January number of Scribner's Magazine, estimates the total number of caribou in the barren grounds at thirty millions. He finds that the number killed by Indians and Esquimaux is of not particular importance with reference to the natural increase of this great herd.

Only seven days more in which to select your Christmas presents. To be honest and frank about it. You can do no better and find a finer class of goods at Silverthorn's Family Drug Store, than most stores that you may visit. Their stock of Ladies' hand bags is very fine and of a superior class and at very reasonable prices.

Prescription compounding is more than a side feature of our business—it's the important part of it. We are equipped to give the best possible service. The Newlin Drug Co.
