Franklin Would Have Been Amazed

If his vision could have extended far enough into the haze of evolution to foresee the ultimate triumph of incandescent electric lighting—the GENERAL ELECTRIC MADZA LAMP.

The sage old philosopher flew his kite during a thunder storm, and by means of a key attracted and discovered electricity, but evolution decreed that modern inventive genius should discover an incandescent lamp that is revolutionizing artificial light.

THE GENERAL ELECTRIC MADZA LAMP gives nearly three times the light of the ordinary carbon incandescent—and costs no more to operate. In addition to this it gives light of a vastly superior quality—a clear white light like the sun's rays.

Everywhere people are having their houses wired for electric light, since the invention of the GENERAL ELECTRIC MADZA LAMP. It has made electricity as cheap as it is convenient.

Come in for a moment today and let us prove to your entire satisfaction that there is no longer a possible excuse for you to be without the greatest of all household conveniences—electric light.

At the Isis.

The Little Station Agent is the title of a very good railroad love story now running at the Isis. The picture tells the story of the rivalry of two brakemen who are in love with the little station agent. The brakemen are pals and the little station agent shows a preference for one. The rejected suitor assaults his pal on the top of a box car and then cuts two box cars and a caboose loose and they go whirling down the mountainside toward the Overland Limited. The little station agent secures help and by a wild ride in a motor car rescues her sweetheart and averts a wreck by running the runaway cars into a siding. Oh You

At the Orpheum.

Weiser & Weiser, comedy acrobats, gave their first performance at the Orpheum last night and their act was well received. Jim Smith, the Chinese impersonator is making a hit by his clever work in handling the Chinese hieroglyphics and monologue work. His jokes are new and well worth the laughs he produces. Willis & Estelle, the Australian team in a novelty entertaining sketch is very good. The ventriloquist powers displayed are very good and the impersonations by his Punch and Judy characters kept something going all the time.
