Franklin Would Have Been Amazed

If his vision could have extended far enough into the haze of evolution to foresee the ultimate triumph of incandescent electric lighting—the GENERAL ELECTRIC MADZA LAMP.

The sage old philosopher flew his kite during a thunder storm, and by means of a key attracted and discovered electricity, but evolution decreed that modern inventive genius should discover an incandescent lamp that is revolutionizing artificial light.

THE GENERAL ELECTRIC MADZA LAMP gives nearly three times the light of the ordinary carbon incandescent—and costs no more to operate. In addition to this it gives light of a vastly superior quality—a clear white light like the sun's rays.

Everywhere people are having their houses wired for electric light, since the invention of the GENERAL ELECTRIC MADZA LAMP. It has made electricity as cheap as it is convenient. Come in for a moment today and let us prove to your entire satisfaction that there is no longer a possible excuse for you to be without the greatest of all household conveniences—electric light.

RATTO A WINNER.

John B. Ratto Spoken of in Complimentary Terms.

Mr. Ratto is an impersonator of remarkable ability and swayed his audience from screams of delight to tears of sadness at will. While most of the program was of a humorous nature, here and there he slipped in a touch of the darker side of life that never failed to score heavily and bring handkerchiefs to the eyes of many. One of the features of his entertainment that was a distinct novelty, was the "making-up" of the character before the audience. The make-ups were quickly done and as true as was his impersonation of the character itself. It would be hard to say which number pleased best.—Leavenworth (Kansas) Times.

Mr. Ratto comes to La Grande, December 26, on a local lecture course. Preparations for housing a large audience has been made, as it is believed many will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear him.

At the Orpheum.

Wilmington Brothers appear at the Orpheum tonight instead of Weiser & Weiser, who take their departure. This is the only change in the program for the week end. The new number comes as a Pantages circuit feature act. The team does a colored comedian stunt, singers, dancers and roller skaters. Their reputation is high class.

At the Isis.

The Little Station Agent is the title of a very good railroad love story now running at the Isis. The picture tells the story of the rivalry of two brakemen who are in love with the little station agent. The brakemen are pals and the little station agent shows a preference for one. The rejected suitor assaults his pal on the top of a box car and then cuts two box cars and a caboose loose and they go whirling down the mountainside toward the Overland Limited. The little station agent secures help and by a wild ride in a motor car rescues her sweetheart and averts a wreck by running the runaway cars into a siding. Oh You Skeleton is a comic picture of the pranks of medical students with the chambermaid and a skeleton.

Girl Drowned Near Grouse.

Grouse, Dec. 19.—A telephone message from Cloverland received this morning says while Elias Sargent's two oldest children were returning from school yesterday evening, they stopped by the way and were playing on the ice on a small pond by the wayside. The ice broke and Abbie, the girl was drowned. Her body was not found until 9 o'clock last night. She was about 11 years old. The boy was found in time to save him alive but badly strangled and chilled.
