Suicide Falls in Purpose.

Carefully muffling his 32 automatic revolver in towels and crawling beneath the covers of his bed in the Palace rooming house, John Adams, a veteran of the Spanish-American war and a well known character about town, sent a bullet crashing clear through his body just below the heart at 2 o'clock this morning in an attempt to end his own life. At 2:30 this afternoon he was still living, and according to City Physician McPaul, has a good chance to recover as the bullet did not sever any large arteries, says the Pendleton East Oregonian.

Adams has been conscious all day and when asked the reason for his deed stated that he was tired of life, and had too many troubles with which to contend. It is known that recently he had a quarrel with his landlady but she declares that it was over a trivial matter and could not possibly have been the cause of his attempted suicide. However, she was very reluctant to state the exact nature of the quarrel and became quite indignant when questioned about the matter.

Adams is a pensioner, receiving $31 quarterly, and was never known to have any regular employment during his year and a half stay in this city.

He was a heavy drinker and when under the influence of liquor was always more or less despondent. Just before going to bed last night he stopped in at the cigar store of "Doc" Evans and told the proprietor that he was despondent over his failure to receive a gallon of "booze" which he had ordered from Walla Walla.

The landlady, as well as most of the roomers in the Palace, heard the shot that nearly ended the life of the man, but it was so dull and muffled that they thought little of it. However, shortly afterwards, Adams, bleeding profusely and suffering great pain, staggered into the room of another guest and asked him to call the landlady. Medical aid was immediately summoned and the flow of blood stopped. Though the physician holds out hope of recovery, Adams himself, expresses the wish that his attempt at self destruction will prove successful.

So far as is known, he has no relatives in this part of the country, but it is believed he has a sister in Fenwood, Wisconsin.

Delay Injunction Proceedings.

Baker, Dec. 28.—No action has been taken by the Baker Commercial club in regard to protesting against the location of the branch asylum at Pendleton. Owing to the poor physical condition of Governor F. W. Benson, who is now in California for his health, it is doubtful if he will be asked to interfere in the case. Unless there is some legal recourse to secure a square deal it is not likely that any action will be taken. It was expected that a meeting of the club directors would be held this morning but owing to the absence of some of the attorneys in Portland the meeting was postponed. It is not known how soon the attorneys will be home, but no action will be taken until that time.

Acting Governor Bowerman made the following statement relative to the selection of Pendleton as the proper place to establish the branch asylum.

Several factors entered into our selection of the site at Pendleton.

"There are 10 counties that may be considered tributary to Umatilla, four to Baker and two to Union, and this fact convinced the board that Pendleton would be the most accessible to the largest area of territory of any of the optional sites permitted by law to be accepted.

"Pendleton, too, has competing railroad service, which is an advantage not held by Baker or Union. In addition to this, the city is a shorter distance from Salem than either of the other two. It should be remembered that the law provides for the changing back and forth of patients between the two asylums in the event it is decided that climatic conditions at one or the other place will be more beneficial.

"Railroad transportation is an important factor and was given the consideration it openly merits. The climate too, at Pendleton was looked upon as the most suitable for the general class of insane patients. The winters are short and mild and the summers are bright and dry.

"Prices of tracts available for the site were not a controlling factor. The 330 acres selected at Pendleton will cost the state $32,200. This is less than similarly located land of equal fertility and accessibility could be secured at Baker and a little less than at Union. The site is right adjoining town and many persons who will wish to visit friends or relatives in the asylum will not be compelled to pay carriage fare after arriving in Pendleton.

"The land in the tract is fertile. Last season it produced more than six loads of apples besides a good crop of small farm products. It includes a large tract of good bottom land and one of the oldest water rights on the Umatilla river.

John D. Cochran was paid $47 by a resolution of the board for a week's work in examining sites and procuring options for the state. State Senator C. W. Nottingham of Portland drew $36.75 for his connection with the locating of the branch asylum. C. G. McCarthy was paid $279.55 for services rendered in connection with the location of the branch asylum and H. D. Scudder, soil expert of the agricultural college was paid $79.65.

Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the asylum at Salem, was opposed to the selection of Pendleton as the site for the branch asylum. It is understood he was in favor of Baker but he made an open protest against Pendleton, although not coming out openly for either of the other sites.

Money in Railroads.

Minneapolis Journal: The statistics of the railroads of the United States are something to astonish the mind. The roads cost some $10,000,000,000 to build. They are capitalized at $18,000,000,000 and probably worth more. They collect $7,000,000,000 a day from the people, which is $127 a year for each family and have earned in the last 10 years $6,660,000,000.

A little book showing the human Appendix, and telling how Appendix is caused and how you can EASILY prevent it, is offered free for a short time by A. T. Hill, Druggist.

Take Care!

Remember that when your kidneys are affected your life is in danger. M. Mayer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "Foley Kidney Pills are a wonderful discovery and I heartily recommend their use. My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse each day. I felt sluggish and tired, my kidney action was irregular and infrequent with a fine sand-like substance. While the disease was at its worst I started using Foley Kidney Pills. Their prompt and efficient action was marvelous. Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years."
