At LOCAL THEATERS

Some one has very aptly remarked: "Of two evils, choose neither." "Never backbite a person to their face." "If you don't see what you ask, want for it." But we would respectfully suggest that you get in line for your tickets for the coming Bancroft Lecture-Entertainment, and help a good thing along, and we are of the opinion, unless all signs fail, that you will have good cause to thank your lucky star, for we verily believe from the vast amount of good things that we have read concerning Dr. Bancroft, that he will prove the banner entertainer who will come our way this season.

Jeff-Johnson Pictures.

Tomorrow afternoon the Orpheum puts on the first performance of three showings of the Jefferson-Johnson fight pictures. The pictures will show the details of the big Reno fight. The Saturday night performance commences at 9 o'clock. The pictures are making big hits all along the line.

At the Orpheum.

The Orpheum theatre played its usual full house last night at its new change of program. Young and Manning, with an entire change of costume and singing and dancing stunts were good. They end their entertaining act with a rooster fight which is the real thing when it comes to cock fighting. Hashimoto, the clever Jap juggler enlarged his act last night and in addition to his clever roller skating and water juggling, varies his act by the introduction of lighted candles around and between which he skates on the front rollers of his skates in graceful scroll curves and designs. The great act of the evening was Iola's dogs and monkey. The dogs are of the white French poodle breed and besides being beautiful are about the cleverest canines that ever came to this country. They do all that a trained dog does and lots besides. One dog does his best at singing a song and for a canine it was very good. The man-monkey gave a very clever imitation of the origins. This act closes with a dog skipping the rope other dogs flying around through space on a merry go round, while the monk does some feats of agility on suspended rings. This act is a high priced one this is the only stop it makes between here and Spokane.

Excellent Company in "The Barrier."

On Jan. 4th, Wednesday night, "The Barrier," at the Amsterdam Theatre, New York City, a play written by Rex

Capt. Barrell and Necia in "The Barrier" at the Opera House Wednesday, January 4.

CHERRY'S NEW LAUNDRY

Beach will have its initial performance in this city. It will undoubtedly be the dramatic event of the season. Not only does the "Barrier" come with the endorsement of New York and other cities, but this endorsement is supplemented by the unstated praise for the excellent work of the company that has been organized for its presentation.

Miss Helen Barham, who will appear in the role of "Necia" has long been a favorite among theatre-goers of this country. Her work is complete in every detail and there is ample opportunity for her to display her emotional talents.

Mr. Norval MacGregor, who will be seen as "Capt. Burrell" will again demonstrate his power and strength in this, one of his best characters.

Mr. Cleveland will be seen in the role of the French Canadian and as the New York World said, "Last night Mr. Cleveland as 'Poleon' gave a remarkable performance. This talented young actor has an excellent career before him."

Their support is of the best including such celebrities as Mr. Verne Layton as "Stark," Mr. William M. Chapman as "Gale," Mr. William Colvin as "No Creek Lee" and Miss Beatrice Neade as the "Squaw."

With such an array of players the public is justified in expecting a performance of unusual merit.

J. W. Greer, Greenwood, La., suffered with a severe case of lumbago. "At times the pains were so intense, I was forced to hypodermic injections for relief," he says. "These attacks started with a slight pain in the small of my back which gradually became fairly paralyzing in effect. My attention was attracted to Foley's Kidney Remedy and I am glad to say after using this wonderful medicine I am no longer bothered in any way by my old enemy, lumbago." Hills Drug store.
