Seven Weeks' Duration and Successful in Every View Point.

The seven weeks of special meetings at the Methodist church came to a close last evening in a blaze of glory. The results are scarcely capable of tabulation as to conversions for people of several denominations professed conversion and will carry to their home churches the value they have received. There were possibly twenty-five all told, new and old.

Mr. Elliott goes tomorrow to open work at Union. After Union he goes to Joseph.

FINE TREAT FOR CLUB

MEMBERS BRUSH UP AGAINST THE WISE ONES IN GYM.

Crowd of Twenty B. M. A. Youngsters Guests of Hot Lake.

About fifty people, twenty of whom were B. M. A. members of this city, were guests at one of the most entertaining and interesting series of wrestling bouts and gymnasium "stunts" at the Hot Lake sanatorium gymnasium last night, when the B.
M. A. of this city met and pitted strength and skill against athletics at the sanatorium. While wrestling and sparring formed the backbone of the event, other athletic attractions were booked and executed with the result that two hours of good clean sport were enjoyed.

The stellar number on the somewhat impromptu program was a mat go between Frits Lottes the promising youngster of the local club and prominent in all branches of athletics and C. Tweedy, a massager at the sanatorium. Tweedy is an understudy of McMahon the clever grabbler, Lottes and Tweedy mixed it from the start, and the spectators saw as fine a specimen of wrestling as the "sharks" produce. Both of the mat men know all the holds and the best way to get out of trouble, with the result that the entire category of tricks and holds in the wrestling game—except those barred by amateur rules —were either attempted or executed.
The same was true in subsequent bouts.

Tweedy was the aggressor throughout and had Lottes under him most of the time, inflicting severe punishment that told in the end, and at the elapse of twenty-five minutes of clever work, Tweedy wored a hammerlock on Lottes and it was all over. The bout ended with the one fall, and Lottes has been showered with congratulations on his long stay against maturer age and better knowledge of the practical workings of the game. McMahon was the third man on the mat.
Tweedy is a clean scrapper.

The other important event was a three-fall go between Cecil Bolton of the B. M. A. and a man named Schroeder. It was more on the rough and tumble order and enthusiasm was at a high pitch often. At the end of fourteen minutes, Bolton took the first fall on a full Nelson. Bolton had the same pry on Schroeder repeatedly but lacked the strength to force Schroeder down. The next fall came after an even twenty minutes of fast grappling, and unexpectedly too. Bolton was deadlocked in a full Nelson again and his end seemed inevitable; but he flopped himself out cleverly and with no particular hold, pinned Schroeder's shoulders to the mat. The trick electrified the audience. The third fall went to Schroeder in five minutes on a full Nelson.

Other events were: Three rounds of sparring between Rice and Sam Coon; four rounds between Peare and Rice.

Peare, Rice and Bolton entertained with some clever tumbling, much to the delight of the Hot Lake contingent, who appreciated the fact that the local youngsters have not been supplied with gymnasium facilities other than their own making. Difficult feats on the trapeze by a Jap added to the attractions. Doctor Phy delivered a short speech on matters related to athletics and in various ways aided in entertaining the La Grande delegation. Gratuitous use of the baths later was highly appreciated.

In every way the junket was a huge success and the club is today greatly obliged to the Hot Lake management for the entertainment and incidentally the wiser by having brushed against the men who are better skilled in the respective lines competed in.

The First Question Asked

—when buying or renting a house,
the ONE question of the modern renter or buyer invariably runs
this way:

Is the house wired for Electricity?

EVERYBODY has come to realize that electric light is not a luxury
they want, but a Necessity
they must have.
