At LOCAL THEATERS

"A Stubborn Cinderella."

After a record of long runs in the principal cities, the best musical production of years, "A Stubborn Cinderella," comes here on Jan. 9th under the direction of C. A. Goettler. The critics of Chicago, when the play was first produced, declared "A Stubborn Cinderella" the greatest musical production ever presented. The company is headed by Cort Albertson, who is making a tremendous hit in musical comedy. Some of the big song hits are "When You First Kiss the Last Girl You Love," "I'm in Love With All the Girls I Know," "What's the Use?" "If They'd Only Let Poor Adam's Rib Alone," and "Adice Senorita." Hough, Adams and Howard are the authors of "A Stubborn Cinderella."

Trouble Brews Again.

El Paso, Tex., Jan. 6—Three hundred federal cavalry and infantry left Juarez, Mexico, today for Pearson to execute a flank movement on insurgents in Northern Chihuahua and will fight as soon as they reach the insurgents.

Every family has need of a good, reliable liniment. For sprains, bruises, soreness of the muscles and rheumatic pains there is none better than Chamberlain's. Sold by all dealers.

At the Orpheum.

Patrons of the Orpheum last night were treated to some excellent music that smacked more of the grand opera than the vaudeville. The Faust Trio, Italian singers and players held forth on the local boards. The solo numbers, although of the classical order, were fine. The vocalists has a good voice, clear and full. The accompaniment was good also. The Markhams, novelty singers and comedians were seen in a new change all through, but their act was not up to that of the first of the week.

JOSEPH PLANS TO REGULATE

CITY COUNCIL ORDERS STRICT SALOON ENFORCEMENT.

New Water System Will be Bettered by New Fire Apparatus.

Joseph, Jan. 5 (Special)—The city council at its regular meeting passed a strict saloon ordinance in conformity with its charter and the Home Rule law. The city attorney was instructed to draft an ordinance regulating vagrancy, loafers and common drunkards. It is the intention of city officials to at once take steps to prohibit the illicit sale of intoxicating liquors (bootlegging). They also placed an order for an additional hose cart, nozzles, sprays and hose to accommodate the new water system which will mean a great saving in insurance premiums.

Officials to Get Axe.

West Union, Jan. 6—After the New Year's vacation the special grand jury investigating the Adams county election frauds, reconvenes tomorrow. Forty-seven witnesses were summoned. It is understood the men higher up who are alleged to have purchased over 1,000 votes are already indicted and their names will be published soon.

When you have a cold get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will soon fix you up all right and will ward off any tendency toward pneumonia. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. Sold by all dealers.

For LaGrippe Coughs and Stuffy Colds Take Foley's Honey and Tar. It gives quick relief and expels the cold from your system. It contains no opiates, is safe and sure—Hills Drug store.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all dealers.

MINISTER, NOW AN ACTOR, PRAISES LIFE ON STAGE

"I find the stage very human, moral and clean,"
says Rev. Dudley C. Fosher

Former pastor of Chicago church now
a player in musical show.

The theatre offers abundant opportunities for the betterment of mankind. This is one reason why Rev. Dudley C. Fosher, until a few months ago pastor of the Ryder Memorial Universalist Church in Chicago, is now appearing in "A Stubborn Cinderella."

"Success in this life is gauged by the good one may do for himself, as well as for others," he says. "It is true that my wife wears tights and sings and dances as sprightly and pleasingly, I hope, as the other young women in the chorus. And it is true, also, that both my wife and myself enjoy the life very much."

"And why not?"

No Vulgarly Seen.

"We have been in this musical show just four weeks now. I must say that I have never heard a vulgar word; never witnessed an uncouth or unseemly act, and I wish that I might say as much for scores of others in different walks of life who undoubtedly scorn me for giving up the pulpit to enter a stage career."

"Aside from the sheer necessity that influenced me to consider entering the theatrical profession, I am following where my ambition has directed since I was a boy."

"In four weeks I have found the people of the mimic world all very real and human. I have been received cordially and kindly. There is a generous spirit of brotherhood that dominates the stage—one can't help but yield to its grateful warmth. The stage does not need my feeble defense—but I am glad to know, at first hand, that the profession needs no uplift. There is uplift for they who enter it. That's satisfying enough, isn't it?" Mr. Fosher will appear at the Steward January 9th.
