RIVAL MANAGERS TALK WEIGHT

Representatives of Moran and McFarland Begin Negotiations for Match.

Negotiations for a match between Owen Moran, the stocky little Britisher, and Packy McFarland were opened this week, and it isn't improbable that these two lightweights will soon clash in the ring. When the subject was put to him, Harvey Moran's manager, didn't seem at all impressed, but when McFarland's representative said that his protegee could make 133 pounds for Owen, Harvey began to listen.

Of course Packey doesn't want to make that weight for Moran or any one else, and will seek to have the notch set at 135 pounds at 6 o'clock on the night of the fight. The outcome of the conference will be known soon when another meeting will be held. A Milwaukee promoter has offered to stage the match if it can be arranged.—Chicago Tribune.

At their regular meeting last Tuesday evening the Lampa Phi Alpha suspended meetings indefinitely. This movement has been considered for some time and appeared to be the only solution of several serious questions. This organization of young men and boys has been prominent in debates, entertainments and athletics as well as in a social way for several years and a large number of people have always been interested in its affairs.

The marriage of Frank Gotch, the champion wrestler, to a popular girl of Humbolt, Iowa, takes place January 11, and Miss N. Lucile Allen of this city enjoys the distinction of being one of the invited guests, though of course she cannot attend. The bride was a college friend of Miss Allen's in Iowa, and the big grappler was also an intimate friend. Miss Allen regrets much her inability to attend the function.

The Mesdames Adolph Newlin and W. W. Berry were the leaders at the Lyle Tuesday Musicals which met on Tuesday, January 3. American composers, Silas Gamaliel Pratt, Henry K. Hadley, were the topics of the meeting.

The Omas Club held two meetings this week. On Monday they met at the home of Grace Pickens and on Friday evening Miss Helen Currey was hostess. They are very busy in the preparation of some social treat for their friends.

The Neighborhood club holds its next meeting on January 9th. The third act of King Lear will be studied, besides several special papers that will be given by various members.

The Kaffee Klatch held its afternoon meeting on Friday at the home of Mrs. F. L. Meyers.

The Five Hundred club met at the home of Mrs. J. J. Carr on Thursday afternoon of this week. Mrs. T. N. Murphy was awarded the prize.

Rescue Hose Number One is planning on a dancing party for this month, at a date to be announced later.

The Decum Club met at the home of Mrs. Robert Newlin, 1802 Second street this week. Mrs. E. E. Bragg received the honors.

The German Verein meets tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the K. of P. hall. All Germans are cordially invited to attend.

Joseph, Jan. 6 (Special)—Joseph Chapter No. 46 O. E. S. entertained Wallowa Valley Chapter No. 50 O. E. S. of Enterprise, Ore., at a regular session here last evening. Initiatory work as exemplified by the visiting members was, by all, admitted good. A dainty banquet was also served which with the many substantial toasts offered made the occasion one of the most pleasant in the history of Eastern Star gatherings in Wallowa county, 51 attended.
