THE TELEPHONE is the coal man's best salesman. Many of his customers he never sees, for their orders come by wire and their checks by mail.

If you move into a new house or have an unexpected need of fuel, you can often save a day's time by telephoning your order.

In the mining and shipping of coal, the Bell Telephone has become an important factor. The wholesale markets and sources of supply are kept in constant touch with the Bell Long Distance Service and the danger of a coal famine greatly reduced.

Hobart Cavanaugh with Richard Jose at the Steward, Wednesday, Jan. 18

Orpheum Stock Company. and his mannerisms and sayings were truly English. Earl Gardner as Rev. Dr. Broklehurst, the buttinsky confessor of sins made a hit with the audiences in his well suited role. Miss Maynon Steward, as Adele Vereno, Rochester's ward, played the part of that vivacious character very well. Miss Pearl Snyder as John, the servant, played the masculine part probably better than one of the opposite sex. Arthur Busch as Richard Mason and Frank J. Kenmore, as Dr. Rivers, although having minor parts executed their roles in a very creditable manner.
