DIAMONDS AND OTHER JEWELRY STOLEN FROM HOMES HOUSE

Man Seen Leaving Place Apprehended But Doesn't Have Goods.

Accused of one of the most daring pieces of house robbery that has come to the attention of the police in years a young man named Charles L. Cleaves is in the city jail late this afternoon. The Fred L. Holmes residence on Fourth street was broken into this afternoon and robbed of diamonds and other jewelry, the value of which has not been made public. Cleaves was caught by Officer McLaughlin soon after he was seen leaving the Holmes house but a thorough search of his person and clothing failed to reveal the stolen goods.

FIREMEN'S BALL NEXT WEEK

RESCUE HOSE WILL MAKE ANNUAL EVENT IMPORTANT.

Indications Point to Big Crowd When Seventeenth Comes Around Again.

Railroadmen may "plunge" into society once a year, and other orders may arrange something in a social way yearly that is classed as stellar, but the Fire Department under the auspices of Rescue Hose Number one makes a great big debut once every year—January usually and on the 17th of this month, said function takes place. It will be a big ball at the Elks hall and the firemen are planning on duplicating the big crowds of a year ago when the record attendances marked the company's entrance into society. The company is conceded to be some company in fighting fires but it is likewise in the same class with arranging dancing parties.

Married—Rayburn and Murr.

Miss Clara Maurer and Mr. Urtle Rayburn, both of Union county, were united in marriage on January 12th, 9111, Arthur C. Williams, justice of the peace, officiating.

The young people are both well and favorably known here and have many friends who wish them much happiness. They will make their home in La Grande.

Aged Indian Dying

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 13 (Special)—Jake Hunt, the oldest Indian in the northwest, reputed to be 108 years old, who has a son 77 years of age, will not live many more "moons". Jack Coon, a son-in-law, attributes the old man's illness to "too much picture," pointing to Jake's photograph. "Too much picture make too many of him; scatter him all over so when cold come now, he die. I have picture taken long time ago, make me weak so have much ache under hat two weeks."

Old Jake is worth about $7,000 in cash in the banks, has a quarter section of land estimated to be worth $30,000 and is known to have $1600 in gold hidden away. The hiding place is unknown.

Years ago an Indian village stood in what is now known as the Yakli-Hunt family now carry on a general farming business. All that is left of the old settlement is a little church, a totem pole and a number of mounds where the Klickitats lie who could not reach the century mark. Old Jake says that this was the Indians' paradise before the advent of the early white settlers. Deer, bear and all kinds of big game were plentiful. Below the falls of the White Salmon river, which is now harnessed, hundreds of Indians congregated every year during the salmon run to procure their winter's supply of fish.

Old Jake was considered the liveliest buck in the tribe when their annual powwows took place, which were kept up until 10 years ago. Tom toms, fancy dresses, painted faces, dancing, singing and feasting was the order of the day and night, lasting a week or more.

Old Jake is said to have married seven times during his long career, but there will be only a widow and a few children to fall heir to his property.

The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger from pneumonia and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me." For sale by all dealers.
