OPEN SESSION.

have grown to know when Senator Pierce is down for a speech it means something of interest to everyone. He is not a member of the Farmers Union but he is a farmer of long standing. He told the farmers the local victories in buying sacks and other commodities was nothing as compared with what might be done. Believing that the Union is not striking at the real fountain, the senator urged the organizations to take a strong hand in politics and make their work effective by electing men to office and advocating measures which would dissolve the trusts and combinations of capital. He asked the farmers to be careful in using the initiative, calling attention to the present conditions of affairs in Oregon when the supreme court of the state is at sea regarding certain measures adopted by the people at the election.

While his speech may have been more or less of a surprise to a number, it was plain to be seen that every farmer present and business man as well approved of it to a large extent.

The meeting was adjourned by Mr. McAllister after a vote of thanks had been tendered the L. D. S. people for the use of their tabernacle.

DREADNAUGHT FLOATED

The vessel is the first of her size authorized by Congress. She exceeds in size any other battleship ever built. It will be surpassed however by other dreadnaughts now being built by other nations. The battleship Wyoming, a sister ship now being built, will be launched soon. The ship will carry an armament of twelve inch guns mounted in six turrets. This completes the entire armament save the twenty one inch rifles for repelling torpedo attacks and torpedo tubes.

Short Course Students Increase.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Jan. 14.—The enrollment for the Winter Short Course work at the Oregon Agricultural College has increased over sixty per cent this year. The students are still registering and indications are that the registration may be increased by another ten per cent or more. The course in horticulture has attracted the greater number of students, having one hundred twenty enrolled. The other courses also show a decided increase in attendance. Practically every section of the state is represented in the enrollment. The work for the first week indicates that the courses are going to be more popular and more successful than ever before.

Society and Clubs

The regular meeting of the Literature Department of the Neighborhood Club was held on Tuesday afternoon of this week. For its year's study this department has taken up Shakespeare's "King Lear" which has proven to be very interesting. Mrs. J. K. Wright led the study and questions as given by Fleming were taken up and discussed.

The subject on psychology was "Feeling and Emotion." A most interesting discussion followed the presentation of the subject which was led by Mrs. J. D. Smith with Mrs. E. C. Moore and Mrs. J. D. Stout as assistants.

There will be a call meeting on Thursday, January 17, to meet with the ladies of the Tuesday Musical to decide upon matters of common interest.

The event of a fraternal order that attracted the greatest number of guests this week was the installation at a banquet conducted by Hope Chapter No. 13 Wednesday evening.

The installation which is always an extremely impressive affair, was conducted by Mrs. Fred G. Schilke, with perfect precision and excellent interest. The banquet was largely attended and one of the excellent treats of the week. Those installed for the coming year were: Carrie Hunter, Worthy matron; Dr. R. L. Lincoln, worthy patron; assistant worthy matron, Mrs. F. M. Jackson; secretary, Mary Wines; Treasurer, Mrs. A. W. Worstell; Conductor, Cynthia Stein; associate conductor, Bertha Berger; Chaplin, Mrs. J. D. Stevenson, Marshal, Mrs. J. E. Reynolds; Organist, Mrs. Nellie Nell; Ada, Eva Huffman; Ruth, Anna Alexander; Esther, Mrs. J. B. Wade; Martha, Mabel Van Fleet; Elpta, Stella Block; Warden, Mrs. C. D. Huffman and Sentinel, J. J. M. #### The passing week was marked especially by social and fraternal features.

The G. I. A. to the B. of L. E. an auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, which is an enterprising and active order of this city and also one of the extremely few such lodges in the state, held its installation of officers this week, followed by an elaborate banquet. The event was attended by a large number of society members. The officers installed by Mrs. Fred G. Schilke, the past president, were: Mrs. Frank Jackson, president; Mrs. Johnnie Shea, vice president; Mrs. C. M. Humphrey, chaplain. Mrs. Lou Given, secretary, Mrs. Hibberd, guide; Mrs. Parker, sentinel, Mrs. Graybeal and Mrs. Jacobson, marshals.

The New Idea club was entertained this week by Mrs. Frank Bay, 1513 Adams avenue.

One of the features of this club is that every member must bring a new idea in sewing, cooking or general household topics to each meeting. Those present were: Mesdames Frank Bay, Nate Zweifel, C. R. Eberhard, Jess Paul, J. B. Brown, N. Y. Walnum, Miss Bull, and Mrs. A. W. Nelson.

Mrs. Archie Bacon entertained the La Jaunesse club Thursday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Bacon.

This is the first time that club has met in the afternoon and the novelty was rather enjoyed by the members. The occasion was rather of an especial nature and a two-course luncheon was served.

One of the important lodge events of the week—and they were many by the way—was the dance given by the Modern Woodmen at the conclusion of a public installation last Monday evening.

Refreshments were served.

The Rescue Hose company dance next week promises to be extremely popular. This is the annual January ball given by the fire department of the city and is always patronized well.

As the end of the month approaches the Brotherhood of Trainmen's ball at the Elk's hall commences to draw more attention. The trainmen are always unique in their decorations and a fine time is assured all comers.

On next Monday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp, 1704 Second Street, a Five Hundred party will be given by last evening with Lyle Kiddle and Gilbert Hunter at Island City. The young people from this city made the trip in automobiles and carryalls and report their Island City hosts as peers in the business.

An important social function was attended by about 100 guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Huffman Thursday evening.

The eligible unmarried girls of this city will give a dance for their bachelor friends in the near future that promises to be a social event of much importance.

the ladies for the benefit of the park. Invitations were issued yesterday. The ladies expect a large crowd and the affair will undoubtedly be a success, as has been the result of all their past enterprises.

The next meeting of the Lyle Tuesday Musical will be held on Tuesday afternoon when the Ladies' Neighborhood Club will meet with them to discuss important matters.

The Five Hundred Club met at the home of Mrs. F. R. Swaney on the corner of Fifth and Pennsylvania Avenue. Mrs. F. M. Bock won the prize.

The Kaffee Klach failed to hold its regular meeting this week.
