The First Question Asked

Is the house wired for Electricity?

EVERYBODY has come to realize that electric light is not a luxury they want, but a Necessity they must have.

At LOCAL THEATERS

Isis Has Big House.

With a set of films that by far outshine anything during the past three or four weeks, the Isis last evening entertained packed houses. The same program will be shown tonight, and Manager Sherwood feels he can safely invite the public to his place of business for the numbers are more than ordinarily interesting. Tonight is the last chance to witness them.

St. Elmo Pleases Well.

With Miss Daniels carrying the title role in splendid shape, St. Elmo was put on at the Orpheum last evening for a four day's run and the show has been declared the best yet. The drama, as every one knows, is extremely interesting and the way the big audience last evening applauded indicates that the company can handle the show very cleverly. The attraction is unquestionably the best produced by the Colonial players so far.

"Silver Threads" This Week.

John A. Miesin, playing Robert Osbourne, the heavy in "Silver Threads" at the Steward January 18, has leading roles in the past three years with Nance O'Neil and Henrietta Crossman and in "The Light Eternal." Edith M. Cook, who was the Cockney housekeeper in "Merely Mary Ann", has a similar part in "Silver Threads" as Eliza B. Lurch, a typical gossiping New England housekeeper. Leslie S. Stowe was in James A. Horne's "Shore Acres", as Martin Berry, is cast as John Laurie, and Louise Kent, the leading woman, was in vaudeville last season in "Sold."

ROBBER CATARRH.

Steals Energy and Will Power From Its Victims. Catarrh robs its victims of energy—some physicians say of will power. That may be the reason why thousands of catarrh sufferers haven't ambition enough to accept this fair and square offer of the Newlin Drug Co., by which they make without any whys and wherefores or red tape of any kind.

The Newlin Drug Co. says, "We guarantee Hyomel to cure catarrh acute or chronic, or money back," and that offer is open to every reader of the Observer.

Hyomel (pronounce it High-o-me) is the purest Australian Eucalyptus combined with Thymol and other germ killing antiseptics.

Pour a few drops into the small vest pocket Hyomel inhaler and breathe it into the lungs over the inflamed membrane infested with catarrh germs.

It is pleasant to use—it kills the germs, soothes the sore membrane, and cures catarrh; if it doesn't your money back.

A bottle of Hyomel costs 50 cents at The Newlin Drug Co., and druggists everywhere. A complete outfit, which includes a bottle of Hyomel and a hard rubber inhaler and simple instruction for use costs $1.00. Jan 16-27 Feb 6
