LOSTINE FIGHT SERIOUS

MAN WHO USED GUN IS IN SERIOUS CONDITION.

Son of Attacked Man Uses Iron Bar and Crushes Shooter's Skull.

Added details of the shooting at Lostine last Sunday is brought to La Grande in private letters and it is indicated that W. W. Wining, the man who worked the firm arm, is suffering with a crushed skull as the result of a counter attack by William Willett, a son of Archie Willett with whom the eral quarrel with Wining started. The younger Willett rushed in and when the fight began struck down and crushed Wining's head after the shooting had taken place. It appears that the older Willett is mortally wounded, though at first it was serious. The bullet has not been removed from the base of his head where it lodged after passing through the mouth.

The Best Yet.

Everybody is invited—father, mother, brother and sister! Come up to the I. O. O. F. hall and lets have one of "them away-back in Missouri" good times. Don't you remember hearing you father and mother talk about them? Well, they do every time they get homesick. They talk about the Box social and Dance they had "Back Hum" in Missouri and that's what we will have Wednesday night, January 18, at the I. O. O. F. Hall. Ladies are requested to bring a box full of lunch. The Dance is free. Given by the Yeoman Lodge.

Bishop Dedicates Rectory.
Bishop R. L. Paddock dedicated the rectory of the Church of the Redemption Saturday night before a good sized audience. The congregation of the church has paid off the indebtedness and is now ready to put in concrete walks around the church and rectory. Bishop Paddock went to Hermiston yesterday morning where he preached a sermon at 11 o'clock and returned on the local to Weston, where he spoke last night.—Pendleton East Oregonian.
