during Monday night. These dogs are about like timber wolves, and are vicious fighters, reminding one of the stories of Jack London's "Call of the Wild."

L. C. Smith drives a 1911 model of the Ford. Its chief difference compared with the previous year's model is the reduction in price.

That the present time is none too soon to begin preparations for next year's football team is the opinion of James H. Sheldon, Indiana's head coach, who was in Chicago this week and held a conference with all his eligibles. Sheldon said he was anxious to caution his men about their studies, so as to have a clean record next fall. He arranged to have Capt. Gill hold practices two days' each week in the "gym." Indiana has scheduled two games.

Arrangements for holding the international amateur billiard championship tournament of the world progressed to the naming of the date at which the series will begin at a meeting of the committee at the Liederkranz club, in Chicago this week, at Park avenue and Fifty-eighth street, yesterday. The series will begin on Feb. 7, and while the number of entries will decide the length of the meeting, it is expected to continue for a period of nearly two weeks.

Battling Nelson has contracted to have six rounds with a party hereafter to be named at Philadelphia March 17 and the dispatch conveying the information also says: "The fight will decide whether Nelson will remain in the ring." With a lucky draw one might deduce a wincelet from that. It is open at both ends.

E. R. Sweetland, recently appointed crew coach at the University of Wisconsin, resigned Thursday. Sweetland has been ill for several days, but his sickness was not considered serious until Director of Athletics Ehler received word from him today that it would be impossible for him to resume his duties as crew coach.

HUGH JENNINGS AT BULL FIGHT

Detroit Manager and His Bride See Contest at Juarez. El Paso, Tex., Jan. 21.—Hugh Jennings, manager of the Detroit Tigers, is here on his bridal tour en route to Bisbee, Ariz., where he has mining interests. Sunday he and his wife saw a bullfight in Juarez, Mexico, and today he said:

"It is not sport at all. It is slaughter. There is nothing of skill or bravery about it. It is not to be compared with baseball."

EDDIE COLLINS A NOISY CHAP

Athletes' Star Second Baseman Keeps Up Running Fire of Jawing. Philadelphia, Pa.—Few of the fans outside of Philadelphia know that Eddie Collins is not only an Evers in second basing but in jawing and yelping at the other performers. The impression seems to prevail that Collins is a brilliant player but a silent one. Far be it from such. Eddie is one of the noisiest ball players there is. His face is always open and some of these days he will inhale a grounder if he isn't careful.

"Get a wiggle there! For the love of Mike, do you think your playing checkers? Aw, say, if I had a four year old baby and he couldn't stop that one I'd disown him. What! Call that baserunning? You look like a goat tied to a post! Say, look

English Actress and Gold Medal She Gets From the New Theater

Miss Ellen Terry, the English actress who was associated for many years with Henry Irving, is to receive a gold founders' medal from the New theater of New York. The medal is to be given in recognition of Miss Terry's distinguished services to dramatic art. She is just now lecturing in the United States on Shakespearean heroines, and the presentation of the medal will take place while she is in New York. She will be the second person so honored by the New theater, of which W. K. Vanderbilt is president. The first founders' medal was given to Dr. Horace Howard Furness, the Shakespearean scholar, a few months ago. Miss Terry is sixty-two years old and has been on the stage more than half a century. Her present tour of the United States is the ninth she has made, seven of them being with Mr. Irving. She first came to America in 1883, and since then her visits have been at regular intervals. She did much to make Irving's tours successful. Her popularity in England was shown in 1906 when a "shilling fund" was started to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of her stage debut and 60,000 persons contributed to the testimonial.

at him now; didn't slide, and caught standing up! Hate to soil that nice white uniform, huh? G'wan, now, tel it to Sweeny, you big ivoryhead.' Thus doth Mr. Collins keep things stirred up vocally throughout a game and the effect upon the Athletes is the same as produced by John Evers' diatribes when he upbraids the Cubs. And maybe the Cubs didn't miss that flow of language in the big series! Zimmerman is no howler. He went two weeks once without saying anything except "Please pass the salt," and what good is that sort of oratory for a world's championship?

SHERIDAN TO FIGHT PHILLIPS

Local Lightweight Gets Match With Cleveland Boy.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—Eddie ("Mick") Sheridan, the Irish boy from the stockyards who is causing a great deal of talk among local fight fans, has been matched to box Joe Phillips of Cleveland, O., before the Windsor boxing club of Windsor, Canada, Jan. 25. Kid Howard, who is piloting the affairs of Sheridan, has plenty of work for his man, but is careful to choose only fighters who are real lightweights to meet his protégé.

Phillips is a strong, rugged young fellow who held the hard hitting Paul Sikora to a fifteen round draw and if Eddie is successful against Phillips he will immediately go east, where Tom O'Rourke has promised him a match with K. O. Brown.
