ORCHARD PROFIT FASHION SHOW IS OFTEN LARGE ARRANGED

SPOKANE COMPILES DATA TO SHOW RETURNS.

Remarkable Returns Cited in Several Parts of Washington.

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 23 (Special)—Strong statements on the profits to be made by investment in fruit lands in the Inland Empire are constantly being put into circulation by orchard land companies and many of those articles are considered extravagant. However, it is only necessary to cite a few instances showing returns from developed orchards and plans being matured for further exploitation to show in facts and figures what has been accomplished during recent months in some of the fertile sections.

At North Yakima, Wash., west of Spokane, 689 acres of fruit were shipped in 1910. This does not include the express shipments, which would make 50 cars more. There are also about 125 cars of apples held in storage. Figuring the average car at 630 boxes and the boxes at $1.50 each, the returns on apples alone in that section were $950,000.

One hundred and twenty carloads of fruit was shipped last year from the Chelan valley, northwest of Spokane. This includes about 20 carloads of summer and fall fruits, the remainder being winter apples. This does not include seven cars of apples still in the hands of the growers nor the fruit which supplied the home demand. Estimating the crop at $550 a carload, which is a conservative estimate, the growers received more than $73,000 for the crop of 1910. A big irrigation project is now under construction and when completed it will water 10,000 acres of land in the Chelan district.

The Northwest Packing company has been incorporated with a capital of $250,000 to take care of the surplus products of the rich Lewiston, Idaho district, south of Spokane. The factory will take care of the large residue of culls and quick perishing small fruits, much of which is at present going to waste.

In the White Salmon valley district southeast of Spokane, another large orchard development company has been organized with a capital of $200,000. This corporation, known as the White Salmon Orchard Development company, has acquired 1800 acres of raw land at a price of $80,000.

SPOKANE MERCHANTS INTRODUCE ANNUAL FUNCTION.

Spring Season to be Ushered in by Style and Fashion Show.

Spokane, Wash., Jan. 23 (Special)—Spokane will have its first fashion and style show March 29 and 30. Merchants of the city, large and small, will be in the show, given in honor of the opening of the spring season. A fund of several thousand dollars is being generously subscribed to by those interested, for advertising purposes, and an effort will be made to reach every resident of the Inland Empire. Local advertising will probably be done by band parades and many of the stores will have orchestras. The merchants will get together shortly to discuss the final plans. All of the stores of the main streets will be in gala attire to greet not only people of the city, but thousands of residents of the Inland Empire who come to the city to shop. The object of the show is to have all of the merchants put on the spring openings simultaneously so visitors can purchase all of their needs at the same time. Friendly rivalry will be rampant among the merchants to see who can put on the best display. One of the largest buildings in the city will be used for lectures and displays.

Hatchery at Olive Lake.

A meeting of the members of the Baker commercial club and sportsmen of this city was held last evening to take up the matter of asking for legislative action in establishing a fish hatchery at Olive Lake, Grant county, relates the Baker Democrat.

A night letter was sent to Senator McCulloch and Representative McKinney asking them to buy themselves in the matter.

The bill which they are asked to prepare carries an appropriation of $3,000 and an annual fund of $2,000 for maintenance. There is at present a fund of $55,000 appropriated for such purpose out of which these amounts will be drawn.

PRESENTATION AT COURT.

This is Coronation Year, and Royalty is Wary of Americans. (Munsey)

Owing to the overwhelming number of Americans demanding presentation in London, Berlin, Vienna, St. Petersburg and Rome, the courts of these capitals have found it necessary to impose certain restrictions. It has been ruled that no Americans can be presented save by their ambassador or ambassadress, who is personally responsible for their social standing and respectability. Then, too, the embassies are limited to twenty presentations of women a year and to a similar number of men.

It has been impressed upon the American embassies in these five capitals that the prescribed number must not be exceeded. On one occasion, after the list for presentations at a certain court had already been filled, peremptory orders arrived that two new arrivals should be permitted to make their courtesy at the next royal drawing-room. In order to carry out his orders, the ambassador had to remove two names to make way for the new comers, although the women thus forced to give place had gone especially to Europe in order to be presented, and had had gorgeous gresses built in Paris for the ceremony.—The Munsey.

"Honeymoon Trail"

Over six hundred people have witnessed "Honeymoon Trail" since its premier in Chicago two years ago, and, although it is a rather difficult matter to "get a line on" the opinion of all its auditors, it is highly probable that at least eighty per cent of that vast number of people agreed with the verdict of the entire Chicago press, which unanimously declared it "the smartest, merriest and most melodious musical offering seen on the stage of a Chicago theatre for many a day."

"Honeymoon Trail" this season has kept up to its original high standard in every respect and numbers among its list of principals almost the entire cast which swung it along on its merry way during its phenomenal run at the La Salle theatre. The few minor changes which have been made, have been made with a view of strengthening, rather than cheapening, the production. The chorus comprises thirty shapely girls who sing, dance and wear stunning clothes equally well. "Honeymoon Trail" with its big ensemble of over half a hundred "graduate funmakers" is the at-night.

QUARRANTINE HORSES

Shippers Inconvenienced by Exaggerated Reports About Coyotes.

The legitimate fruit of the Wallowa county "mad coyote scare" in the Portland papers was reached last week when 92 head of horses shipped from this county by Gaskill & True were quarantined in the Portland stockyards, says a Wallowa paper.

Mr. Gaskill received word of the matter and left Wednesday morning for Portland to see after them. He had received no particulars except the horses were not allowed to leave the yards on account of the mad coyote scare. The horses were shipped from this county on January 9.

The continuance of the "big stories" nine-tenths of which are untrue, will probably result in a general quarantine on stock from this county. It is time active measures were taken by shippers, commercial clubs, or whoever should attend to it, to counteract the injurious reports.

Victim of Drink Needs Orrine.

Drink cunningly destroys the will power, and while the drunkard wants to do what you tell him, he wants a thousand times more the drink that he craves. Medical treatment is necessary. Orrine will destroy the desire for liquor, so that the drink will not be missed and restores the patient to health.

This remedy is thoroughly scientific and is so uniformly successful that it is sold with a registered guarantee to refund your money if it fails to effect a cure. Booklet on "How to Cure Drunkenness," free on request. The Orrine Co. 574 Orrine building, Washington, D. C. Sold in this city by Silverthorne's Family Drug store. Jan 23 25 27
