ALL DOGS MUZZLED.

Wallowa County Canines Must wear Appurtenances to their Mouths.

Enterprise, Feb. 1. (Special)—County Veterinary Flack has issued the following notice regarding dogs as regards the hydrophobia scare:

All dogs must wear a wire or leather muzzle (if of leather, it must have a wide band of leather starting not over 1-2 inch below the eyes, and running beyond the end of and around the nose, and fit tight); this is to prevent dogs when loose (not tied up with a chain) from biting or picking up any poisoned article.

All dogs must wear an approved muzzle at all times except when chained, except hunting dogs on an actual hunt, or dogs kept alone in an enclosed building or in an enclosed yard that they cannot get out of, or with other animals. Otherwise they may be shot on sight by any accredited officer in the county of Wallowa.

This notice to be in effect from the first day of February, 1911, and until further notice by the state or county veterinarian.

NOT A CHILD'S PRODUCTION

PINAFORE OPERA ONE OF THE STANDARD IN ENGLAND.

Few Operas Have Excelled It and None are More Popular.

There are few people who are at all interested in vocal music or who have attended the standard plays or opera, who are not more or less familiar with the story and the music of the opera "Pinafore." There are a few people however who have formed the erroneous opinion that it is some sort of a children's entertainment, but most people realize that it is one of the most beautiful and popular operas ever written and that it has been produced by more companies, both professional and amateur than any other English opera.

It was with this opera that the most celebrated opera company of the United States, the "Bostonians," made their first success and it continued to be their best attraction until that other beautiful opera "Robin Hood," in a measure took its place. Still the company continued to give "Pinafore" for many years afterward and it was always greeted by full houses.

Some of the most pleasing features of any opera is the male chorus work and in this "Pinafore" excels most of the light operas as nearly half of the first act is performed by the men and they make a fine introduction to one of the leading characters, Captain Corcoran. This role is being ably filled by Mr. C. P. Ferrin and as he is well known throughout this entire locality to be one of the best singers of the northwest all will be glad to again have the opportunity of hearing him in such an important role as "Captain of the Pinafore."

The celebrated "Moon Song" is one of the numbers of this opera and in this solo Mr. Ferrin is especially good. He is at all times ably assisted by Mrs. O. E. Silverthorne, who takes the part of little "Buttercup."

The opera will be given both nights complete, there being no cuts made as is often done by directors of amateurs. The opening of the new high school auditorium should be the occasion of bringing out everybody interested in the work of beautifying and furnishing the new high school and with so worthy an object and so good a production of a favorite opera. The Auditorium should be packed both nights. Seats now on sale at Silverthorn's.

"I had been troubled with constipation, for two years and tried all of the best physicians in Bristol, Tenn., and they could do nothing for me," writes Thos. E. Williams, Middleboro, Ky. "Two packages of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets cured me." For sale by all dealers.
