He smokes a cigar, goes to bed, plays drunk and does a hundred other tricks that will amuse the old and the young and all in the play, "Polly of the Circus."

At the Orpheum
Banks & Walker, exponents of colored comedy, was the vaudeville attraction at the Orpheum last night. Their act consists of a monologue, and song sketch. The monologue work is good and their southern talkfest is natural for these chocolate drops. The individual songs and duets were heartily encored.
