Business Always Good.

The lasting popularity of "Three Twins" the musical comedy success which Jos. H. Galtés will offer at the Steward on Thursday is amply evidenced by the large attendance every time it appears for return dates. In no city in which it has yet been presented has the business of its second and third visits been less than were the first, which is almost invariably all that the house will hold. Bessie Clifford, whose fame as the Yama Yama girl has traveled from Ocean to Ocean, is once more in the cast, and heads this splendid organization together with Victor Morley, who created the part of Tom Stanhope when this merry musical melange was first offered to the public at the Whitney Opera house in Chicago where it remained for five months.

At the Isis Theatre.

A clever and vastly amusing picture is being shown at this popular house for three days commencing this afternoon. It is called "The Trout" by the Edison company. Most people have seen or heard about the "amateur nights" held occasionally at the vaudeville theatres and the film deals with the trout of a couple of would-be stars in a special act. The situation for the familiar yell of the critical audience, "Get the Hook!" is here presented and the unsuccessful aspirants make an undignified exit.

They return to the fray however, and by "burlesquing" their former emotional act carry off the honors of the evening. This film throws an interesting side light on the methods adopted behind the footlights for producing an angry sea, and thrilling rescue of the heroine from a watery grave.

Wash Those Pimples Off.

Use D. D. D., that mild, soothing wash, that recognized remedy for Eczema and all skin troubles. First drops take away that awful burning itch, cleanse the skin—wash away every pimple—every impurity. Nothing like D. D. D. for the complexion.

Get a 25 cent trial bottle today—worth ten times its cost to have a bottle in the house. At any rate, drop into our store to talk over the merits of this wonderful prescription.
