"The Best Play I Have Ever Seen."—Colonel Roosevelt Given here with a special cast of players, which musters a roll of the best artists on the American stage.

PRICES: 50c, 75c, 1.00, 1.50. Sale Opens Monday

It to be all you claim for it, and cheerfully recommend it to any one who is suffering from any hair dandruff or scalp trouble."

On the same date Ruth Odille Burgess, the charming little daughter of Mrs. Burgess wrote:

"I am only a little girl, but I want to tell what Parisian Sage has done for me. I had a scalp disease that looked like dandruff and when it was combed up there would be a bloody water under the dandruff. Mamma tried everything in the way of hair tonics, without results, until she saw the advertisement of Parisian Sage; she got a bottle and it cured me, but kept on using it. Now I have as beautiful a head of hair as any girl."

Men, women and children, in every section of America who are using ordinary commercial hair tonics should give Parisian Sage a trial. It is so far ahead of all others that one application will prove its great superiority.

It is guaranteed by the Newlin Drug Co. to stop falling hair and itching scalp and to drive out all dandruff in two weeks or money back. It grows hair in abundance and gives to the hair a lustrous and fascinating appearance. 50 cents a large bottle at the Newlin Drug Co. and druggists everywhere. Feb. 15, 25 March 8

NAME IS POPULAR.

Soubriquettes on "Man of the Hour" Numerous and Long.

No other play ever written has had so many soubriquettes as "The Man of the Hour" first produced in New York city, on December 6th, 1906 and now to be presented for the fifth season on tour, and with a sixteen week's summer run to its credit in Chicago, where it fairly duplicated its New York city hit.

Here are some of the lines applied to it by critics and men of affairs:

- "The Play of the hour."
- "The play of the day."
- "The drama of the moment."
- "The drama of the present."
- "The footing of our daily life."
- "The success of the season, this season, last season, and all seasons."
- "The lesson of today's affairs."
- "A photograph of life as we're living it."
- "A picture of present conditions."
- "A tribute to the power and potency of honest love."
- "A triumph for the play that is clean."
- "A triumph of good play and good acting."
- "A play of real significance."

Isis Theatre Produces Splendid Line of Pictures this Week.

The past week's efforts of Manager Sherwood to make his house more popular if possible than heretofore, have met with unqualified approval by the people of La Grande, and the irrepressible "Sherry" is to be congratulated upon the success with which his efforts have been rewarded. The selection of a "special" for each succeeding programme has resulted in the people looking forward with no little curiosity as to what the next will be, and they are never disappointed. The "special" on the present programme is one of the Kalem company's very best. A thrilling showing of a runaway locomotive engine and the collision with another lone engine, his picture holds the spectators spellbound until the crash is over and is certainly a photographic work of art. The next "special" will be shown on Sunday afternoon and will be fully up to the excellent standard already obtained.

These films are the very latest releases from the distributing centers and being new, together with the latest projecting lanterns and the patent "Radium" screen which Mr. Sherwood has installed, insure the highest possible degree of excellence which is obtainable in any picture house in the country.

The music incidental to each picture subject, is of a very high order and the public is assured of a pleasant evening, well spent, after they enter the doors of the Isis Theatre.

WELL KNOWN ACTORS COMING

Clean-Cut Production Seen in "Gentleman from Mississippi."

Continued success attends "A Gentleman from Mississippi," now in its third big year of popularity, and comes to the Steward March 3. A clean, wholesome play, rich in comedy and optimistic in spirit, it has a timely message, and in addition it is a splendid evening's entertainment. Its appeal is general, for young and old delight in the plucky fight made by the honest old Southern Senator and the courage with which he defeats the schemes of his corrupt confederates. The appeal of this fight is as fresh today as when the play was first produced, and the fact that W. A. Brady, under whose management the tour is given, will send here for this engagement the entire special New York cast, is promise of a first class evening's entertainment with nothing but success to be seen on the horizon of this engagement. In the company are such well known players as R. A. Fisher, John Butler, John Arthur, W. E. Townsend, A. H. Ebbets, T. A. Irwin, Ernest Evers, Frank Hartwell, E. H. Bender, Walter Pollock, Geo. H. Palmer, Emma Meffert, Leah B. Beard, Jane Otey, Jane Fernley, B. Watson, Lute Adams and others.

ARCADE POPULAR PLACE

Vitagraph Picture Entertains Large Audience Last Night.

"Coward or Hero, Vitagraph, is the principal film at the Arcade at this writing. The house entertains a large audience each night and the big theatre is one of the most popular play houses in the city. Manager George is always alert to bring the best possible to La Grande.

Result from disordered kidneys. Foley Kidney Pills have helped others, they will help you. Mrs. J. B. Miller, Syracuse, N. Y., says, "For a long time I suffered with kidney trouble and rheumatism.
